Queenstown Group Talks Health Care

Bureau Legislative Program Also Discussed

Adequate medical and dental care for a community and the Maryland Farm Bureau legislative program were the chief topics discussed at a meeting of the Queenstown Farm Bureau discussion group held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Melvin on Wednesday evening of last week.

Officers chosen for the ensuing year were Thomas Rhodes, chairman; Richard B. C. Davidson, vice-chairman; Mrs. James B. Carter, secretary; Mrs. L. Kennard Rhodes, discussion leader; Algernon Carter, publicity agent.

The regular meeting date was changed from the first to the second Friday of each month to avoid conflict with the Centreville P-T A meeting.

An extra session will be held Tuesday evening, March 21, at 7:30 o'clock with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Shawn at Bloomingdale. Hiram Hammond and Miss Bessie Hammond will assist the host and hostess.

At this meeting Mark Miller, Assistant County Agent and Poultry Specialist, and John H. Moffett, president of the Queen Anne's County Poultry Association, will present plans of the association for furthering the poultry industry in Queen Anne's. The meeting will be open to all residents of the Queenstown community interested in poultry.

Auto Shop Of Former County Resident Destroyed

Fire started by a spark gutted the automobile paint and repair shop of Kennard Porter, former Centreville resident, and his partner, Kenneth Widan at West Chester, Pa., Saturday afternoon, doing damage estimated at between $18,000 and $20,000. Ten cars and a truck were destroyed with the building.

The blaze started when a spark set fire to gasoline in the paint repair department of the shop causing an explosion. Within a few minutes the entire place was in flames.

Before firemen could go into action the one-story building was an inferno. Five employees escaped without injury. The owners said the building was insured owners of cars would stand their own losses.

Mr. Porter is well known in Queen Anne's county. For several years he was employed at the Seney Oil Company before he started in business for himself at Westchester.
