In the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, In Equity.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

THE OBJECT of the Bill of Complaint is to obtain a Decree for a sale, for the purpose of Partition, of the farm or tract of land known as "The Annie E. Reynolds Farm", composed of two tracts of land or farms called "The Hassett Farm" and "The Richardson Farm", situate partly in Queen Anne's County and partly in Talbot County, Maryland, on both sides of the public road leading from Wye Mills to Queen Anne, and to have the proceeds arising from said sale divided among the parties owning said real estate or interested therein according to their respective rights therein, and for such other and further relief as the Plaintiffs' case shall require.

THE BILL states that Annie E .Callahan, late of Queen Anne's County, deceased, departed this life in the year 1924 leaving a Last Will and Testament and Codicil thereto which was duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court of Queen Anne's County and is recorded in Liber W T B No. 2, folio 109, one of the Will Record Books for Queen Anne's County.

THAT the said Annie E. Callahan, so dying as aforesaid, was, at the time of her death, seized and possessed of a farm or tract of land composed of two several parcels of land, called or known as "The Hassett Farm" and "The Richardson Farm", situate, partly in Talbot County, Maryland, and partly in Queen Anne's County, Maryland, on both sides of the public road leading from Wye Mills to Queen Anne and containing THREE HUNDRED AND FORTY-EIGHT ACRES, more or less.

THAT by Item 8 of the aforesaid Last Will and Testament the said Annie E. Callahan did devise the aforesaid real estate to her three daughters, Martha W. Friel, Mary T. Murphy and Loreta Graham, as tenants in common, in fee simple.

THAT the said Martha W. Friel, Mary T. Murphy and Loreta Graham are the owners of, and are seized and possessed of the aforesaid real estate, as tenants in common.

THAT said real estate is not susceptible of division in kind among the parties owning same or interested therein without loss or injury to said parties and that the Plaintiffs are advised and allege that they are entitled to have said real estate sold for the purpose of a division of the proceeds among the parties owning same or interested therein according to their respective interests therein.

THAT the Defendants, Loreta Graham and John A. Graham, her husband, are non-residents of the State of Maryland, residing in Washington, District of Columbia.

THAT all of the parties are adults and are sui juris.
