In Memoriam

EVANS—In loving remembrance of JOSEPHINE EVANS, who departed from this life two years ago, April 21,1937.

I often sit and think of her
When I am all alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
Like ivy on the withered oak,
When other things decay,
My love for her will still keep green
And never fade away.

By Her Cousin,
MARY JORY.

In our hearts your memory lingers,
But we know its vain to weep
Tears of love can never wake you,
From your happy peaceful sleep.

BY HER AUNT DAISY.

Shore Group Joins Delmarva Commerce Body

Oliver C. Jones, Head Of Centreville Chamber, On Officer's List

Oliver C. Jones, president o fthe Centreville Chamber of Commerce, has been named vice-presdent to represent the Centreville group in the recently formerly Delmarva Chamber of Commerce which held its regular session at the Wicomico Hotel in Salisbury Wednesday afternoon. I. L. Benjamin of Salisbury, president of the Chamber, conducted the meeting.

The peninsula chamber which welds together a number of business organizations in Delaware, Maryland and Virginia seeks united action on matters concerning Shore business and also intends to formulate plans for attracting the tourist trade to the Delmarva peninsula during the New York World's Fair .

At the session Wednesday committees reported on steps being taken to secure better service and lower fares for passengers and automobiles on ferries serving the Delmarva area.

The Delmarva Chamber in some respects resembles the former Delmarva Eastern Shore Association which functioned some fifteen years ago. It differs somewhat in that its membership is composed directly of the various business organizations and through them contacts the membership of the individual clubs.

The Queenstown Lions Club is a member of the Delmarva Chamber. Other organizations are the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, Cambridge Business Men's Association, Crisfield Junior Chamber, Denton Chamber, East Salisbury Business Men's Association, Dover Chamber, Federalsburg Chamber, Hurlock Chamber, Laurel, Del., Chamber, Ocean City Chamber, Parksley, Va., Business Men's Association, Pocomoke Business Men's Association, Salisbury Chamber, Saxis, Va.., Chamber, and Smyrna Business Men's Association.
