Military Field Mass To Be Held At Old Bohemia

Soldiers To Lend Color To Annual Service At Venerable Church

Preparations have been completed for the Military Field Mass at Old Warwick, to be held Sunday at 11 a. m., in commemoration of the 135th anniversary of the foundation of this ancient edifice. The historic church, whose real title is St. Francis Xavier, is named in honor of the great missionary saint of the Indies and has the distinction of being the oldest Catholic Church on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and the site of one of the earliest schools in the field of Catholic education.

The Mass will be celebrated by the Rev. James Williard Lutz ,a newly ordained priest from the Wilmington diocese, and assisted by the Rev. John M. Walsh, of the St. Denis' Church, Galena, as deacon and the Rev. Francis A. Lynch, Director of the Catholic Welfare Guild, and the Society for the Propagation for the Faith of the Wilmington Diocese as subdeacon.

The Master of Ceremonies of the Mass proper will be the Rev. Mr. Anthony DiMichele ,and the Master of Ceremonies to the soldiers ,the Rev. Mr. Joseph Horgan, both seminarians, from St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. William J. McElwaine, asistant rector of St. Peter's Church, New Castle, Del. The seminarians from the Oblates' Noviatate at Childs, will have charge of the minor office of the Mass.

The Fort DuPont military band will play and a detachment of soldiers from the first Engineers at the Fort, under the command of Lieut. A. H. Bagnalo, U. S .A., will participate in the military ceremonies of the Mass.

A musical program has been arranged and will be sung by a combined chorus of Catholic choirs in Wilmington under the direction of George Finnan, choir director of Christ Our King Church.

A new note will be added to the field mass this year by the attendance of the various Catholic Boy Scout Organizations, of Wilmington, among whom will be the St. Elizabeth's Troop No. 5, George Durney, scoutmaster; Troop No. 30, St. Paul's, Joseph Desmond, scoutmaster; Troop No. 32, Pulaski Legion, Frank Filipkowski, assistant scoutmaster; Troop No. 10, St. Anne's, Charles Desmond, scoutmaster, and other groups of Catholic and non-catholic scouts.
