Would Fingerprint Shore Club Women

A plan to fingerprint club women on the Eastern Shore was outlined by Mrs. Harry L. Harcum, president of the State Federaltion of Women's Clubs at a meeting of the Eastern Shore District at Cambridge, Friday. Mrs. Harcum urged the Shore clubs to contact police authorities and have their entire membership fingerprinted as a means of identification.

The Right Rev. William McClelland, Bishop of the Diocese of Easton, will be the principal speaker at the Fall meeting to be held at Elkton, November 2. Folger McKinsey, the widely known Bentztown Bard of the Baltimore Sun, will also address the clubwomen and will read several of his poems.

DOMINION LADIES' AID

The Dominion Ladies' Aid Society held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Oscar Schultz with Mrs. Ira Stevens assisting as hostess. The session was largely attended. Following the business period a program of entertainment was provided by the recreation committee,. Mrs. Helen Lewis and Miss Beatrice Roe won prizes in the games.

Creekfields Burned

Easton—Fire believed to have started in a power plant destroyed Creekfields, home of the Rev. Borden Smith with an estimated loss of $15,00. Several valuable antiques were consumed. The blaze was discovered by a neighbor, Arthur Fehsenfeld who wrapped wet towels around his head, aroused the retired clergyman and his family and helped rescue Mrs. Borden Smith.
