UP AND DOWN THE Eastern Shore

Problems Of Neutrality

Salisbury—Addressing the Wicomico County Historical Society following ceremonies marking the unveiling of three murals in the Salisbury postoffice Senator George R. Radcliffe discussed the problems of neutrality and asserted that the way to keep peace is to be "ever alert to find ways of defending ourselves and remaining at peace." The Senator spoke as president of the Maryland Historical Society. The murals painted by a New York artist depict colonial life in Salisbury before the county was created out of Somerset and Worcester.

Build Gas Plant

Berlin—Because of plans for a new bridge at Ocean City an illuminating gas plant to supply Berlin and the territory to the present bridge is being erected here. At present the town is furnished with gas by an eight-mile pipe line from the resort town.

Boy Loses Fingers

Chestertown—While playing with the rope of a hay fork at the farm home of his parents near here the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Story suffered serious injuries when his left hand became entangled in the rope while the fork was in motion. It was found necessary to amputate two fingers and parts of two other fingers.

Tree Planting Week

Pocomoke.—Approximately 130,000 pine trees will be planted along the Snow Hill - Pocomoke road on 9,000 acres of resettlement land leased by the Federal government to Maryland for ninety-nine years. The work to last a week will be done by the CCC corps in Worcester county.

Sure Water Supply

Princess Anne.—Smith's Island which has depended upon rain water caught in cisterns for drinking water for centuries, obtained its first certain supply of good water last week when an artesian well 781 feet deep was completed at Rhodes Point, the flow from the well being three gallons per minute.

Boy Drowns Crabbing

Georgetown.—Irving Smith, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, fell into the Sassafras river while crabbing and was drowned. No one witnessed the accident, but a search was made when the crab line was found and it was learned Irving had not returned home. His body was found near the bridge. The boy's father, for many years a farmer in Kent county, became day bridge tender on the river about a month ago.

Blue Sign

Pocomoke.—The Volunteer Fire Department shows a blue light on its apparatus when going to a fire, thereby warning vehicles to yield the right of way.

Killed Hopping Freight

Elkton.—Believed to have fallen and been dragged when he tried to hop a moving freight train Cheste Buck, 32, of Baltimore, suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries near the passenger station here. He died shortly afterwards at the Union Hospital.

Close Tilghman High

Easton.—With only twelve pupils remaining in the school's general course Tilghman high school has been discontinued and the pupils transferred to St. Michaels. Thirty-four pupils showed up on opening day but all but twelve preferred a choice of three curricula at St. Michaels, whereupon the other twelve were sent along as well.

Possible Green Hay

Salisbury.—Fire believed due to spontaneous combustion destroyed a large barn on the John L. Smith farm on the Mt. Hermon road. Four horses and several head of cattle were removed from the structure after the fire was discovered. A large quantity of hay in the barn gave the blaze such a start that firemen could not cope with it except to prevent spread to other buildings.

Skips Business Section

Elkton.—Contractors have commenced work on relocating Route 40 by building a road across the marsh near the old pulp works to by-pass the town.

Waves His Thanks

Ridgely.—Appreciative for the free pasture seed given by the Federal government to farmers in the Eastern Shore drought area Charles Buck Herzog, old time baseball star now become a farmer, staked out a cloved field with American flags as he put in the seed.

Smoke Scare

Salisbury.—A slight blaze, quickly controlled, injected excitement into the Wicomico Hotel and forced guests to flee when smoke seeped into the ventilating system and fogged the second and third floors. Guests were led through smoke-filled hallways to safety.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Reality" will be the subject of the Lesson - Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday. The Golden Text will be from Isaiah 64:4- "Since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him."

BEAT CENTREVILLE

The Grasonville softball team defeated Centreville in a double header, 14-3 and 5-1 at Grasonville Sunday.
