QUEEN ANNE

The annual Christmas program was held at the Hillsboro Methodist Church on Sunday evening, Christmas Eve. A play, "Capturing the Christmas Spirit," was given, the parts being taken by Mr. J. E. Bramble, Mrs. Bernard Sparks, Miss Laura Virginia Fleming and William Taylor Skinner. A pageant of the Holy Family, Shepherds and Wise Men formed a part of the drama. Those taking part were: Joseph, Bernard Sparks, Jr.; the Virgin Mary, Helen Lee Short; Angels, Esther Skinner and Sara Frances Short; Shepherds, Billy Moore, Luther Short, Jr., Ray Baker, Edward Lewis and Edward Rathell; Wise Men, Rawley Sparks, Kenneth Micks, Emmett Sylvester. After the program, which also included Christmas carols and selections by the little tots of the Sunday School, and a duet by Misses Charlanne and Eleanor Eaton. The usual treat for the Sunday School was given. St. Paul's Church and Hillsboro Church planned to sing Christmas carols in the two towns after the services at the church.

Mr. Nicholas Knotts has taken over the operation of the filling station recently operated by Mr. Alonzo Mullikin. Mr. Mullikin will return to farming.

Rev. J. Earle Cummings, District Superintendent of the newly-formed Easton District, preached his first sermon in the Queen Anne church on Thursday evening. Following the service, Dr. Cummings conducted the Quarterly Conference of the church.

Miss Emily Sneed left on Thursday morning for Morrisville, Pa., where she will make her future home with her uncle, Mr. W. R. Jones.

The Intermediate Group of St. Paul's Church young people have made preliminary plans looking toward an organization of their town. It is hoped that all the young people of this age in the community will join the group. At their recent meeting at the church, Eloise Morgan, Mabel Jean Ivins, Jane McDonnell, Bonnie Barton and "Sonny" Gibson were appointed to make plans for a party in the near future. It is anticipated that this group will fully organize after the first of the new year.

Miss Betty Moore has joined the Maryland National Youth Administration. Applicants for jobs under the NYA in the Eastern Shore counties will be interviewed by Miss Moore, who has served as a camp Councillor at Camp Powatinka, under the Baltimore Y. W. C. A., and in similar capacity elsewhere. Miss Moore is a graduate of Tri-County high school, Queen Anne, and of the University of Maryland. She acted as coach while at Tri-County high school. Her many friends wish her much luck in her new work.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of Hillsboro Church are collecting Ivory soap wrappers and Kool box tops as a means of raising money for their work. This Saturday is the closing date for sending them in for redemption at one-half cent each in lots of two pounds or more. Quite a number have been collected.

The annual Christmas party given by the Community Club on Tuesday evening of last week was quite an enjoyable affair, although owing to various circumstances the number attending was somewhat smaller than usual. A Christmas program was given, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Gibson and her committee, as follows: Carol, Joy to the World; The Lord's Prayer; an address of welcome, by Mrs. Bernard Sparks, vice-president and acting president; song, We three kings of Orient are; reading of the Bible story of the birth of the Infant Jesus, by Miss Clara Price; Monologue, "Christmas at the Picture Show, by Miss Dorothy Blades; poem, This Would I Keep, by Mrs. Sparks; song, Silent Night; reading of a Christmas story by Rev. Charles Jarvis. Refreshments of ice cream and many kinds of cake were served at the close of the program. Ladies of the community were guests of the club members at the party.

The second high school party was held on Thursday evening of last week in the high school, under the direction of the faculty. The pupils are finding these affairs great fun. Ice cream and cookies were served by the teachers.

Pupils of Tri-County high school gave a very creditable performance of two short plays on Friday afternoon. "Christmas for the O'Tooles," and "Ousting Sam Grouch," were the plays, and the young thespians did credit to their director in the handling of their roles. Features of the program were the singing of carols by the Freshman Music Club, and a monologue by Miss Dorothy Blades, 'Christmas at the Picture Show."
