The Golden Text will be from Eph. 5:14—"Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give thee light."

Among the citations comprising the Lesson-Sermon will be the following from the Bible—Luke 5:24—"But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power upon earth to forgive sins (he saith unto the sick of the palsy) I say unto thee arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house."

The Lesson-Sermon also will include passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, among which is the following, page 142—"Truth is God's remedy for error of every kind, and Truth destroys only what is untrue. Hence the fact that, today, as yesterday, Christ casts out evils and heals the sick."

Services: Sunday, 11 a. m., Sunday School 9:45 a. m., Wednesday evening testimonial meetings at 8 o'clock, 11 N. Harrison street, Easton.

Enjoyable Halowe'en Party Held By Grasonville School

The Grasonville school children held their annual Hallowe'en party at the Knights of Pythias hall Friday evening. It was by far the largest and most successful party they have ever given, with the attendance well over 100.

Mary Lou Bryan won the prize for having the prettiest costume; Billy Jones dressed as "Tonto" received the prize for the most unusual costume.

Fortune telling was perhaps the most interesting activity with Genvieve Young as the fortune teller. Betty Thomas was in charge of the refreshments. Decorations were a nature corner fixed like a corn field with a scarecrow and leaves attractively arranged. Prizes were displayed in the nature corner.

Mrs. Edgar Blades, Misses Miriam and Mildred Gale, spent the week-end in Baltimore.
