The Queen Anne's County Social Register

QUEEN ANNE

The Rally Day program given in the Hillsboro Methodist church on last Sunday evening was repeated on Sunday morning, November twelfth; the very interesting program entitled, "God In The Home" including a short playlet, "An evening with the Jones family", in which the parts were taken by Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Strickland, Miss Gladys Gale, Mr. William Sherwood, Laura Virginia Fleming, William Taylor Skinner, Eugene Skinner, Edward Lewis, and others of the Sunday School and choir. No evening service was held, on account of the revival services at the Ruthsburg Church, at which Rev. A. W. Strickland preached on Sunday evening.

The Official Board of Hillsboro Church met on Wednesday evening in the parsonage.

Messrs. Vinson Sneed and Harry Faulkner have been called to camp as members of the National Guard, Company K.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schall, and a party of friends, from Easton, including Miss Anne Beall, Mrs. Cora Marshall, Mrs. Ralph Marvel, and Mr. Milton Marshall, were recent Sunday visitors to Valley Forge, Va.

A number of Queen Anne's residents attended the card party at Denton on November tenth, under the auspices of the Catholic congregation.

Mrs. Harry Knotts was a recent Wilmington, Del., visitor.

Mrs. T. A. Geiser has left the Easton hospital and is now at the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Garrison, of Cheswold, Del. Her friends here are delighted to learn that Mrs. Geiser is improving since her recent severe illness.

Members of the Hillsboro-Queen Anne Boy Scout troop attended the football game on Saturday between Mount St. Mary's and Washington College, at Chestertown. The Boy Scouts of the Delmarva section are annually invited to attend this event on Armistice Day, as guests of the College. The boys report a fine time. Scoutmaster Lloyd Fleming was prevented from accompanying the scouts, but his place was ably taken by Rev. Charles Jarvis, who looked after the boys for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey Mulligan and little daughter, of Easton, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinsos, of near Ruthsburg, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Barton.

Mrs. Bernard Sparks, spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Selby Smith, of Ridgely. Mrs. M. F. Garrigues, of Baltimore, was a caller at the Sparks' home on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. G. Jump returned on Sunday evening from a visit of several weeks with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Jump, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bankert and children, of Union Mills, and Mrs. Carrie Beall, of Taneytown, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schall on Saturday.

Members of Caroline County Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, attended divine service in a body at St. Paul's Methodist Church, Queen Anne, on Sunday morning, as is the annual custom of the Order, choosing the church attended by the Worthy Matron of the Chapter. Mrs. Oscar Briscoe, of Queen Anne, is Worthy Matron of the Caroline County chapter.

The Community Club will hold a "bake" in R. H. Gibson's store, on Saturday afternoon, beginning at two o'clock. Dressed chickens, salads, pies, cakes, doughnuts, rolls and biscuits, etc., will be on sale.

The Community Club met on Tuesday evening of last week in the club rooms, with thirteen members and two visitors present. Plans for a bake this coming Saturday, November eighteenth, were made, under the auspices of the Finance Committee, assisted by the club members in general. A donation of fifteen dollars to the fund for the high school curtain, was made. There is still a small balance of twenty-four dollars owing on the curtain, which was put up last June, and is very handsome. This amount will be raised by subscriptions; the faculty of the high school will be pleased to receive any donations, however small. The Nominating Committee was appointed by Mrs. Sparks, acting president, and directed to present the slate for next year's officers at the December meeting. The Committee: Mrs. Oscar Briscoe, chairman, Mrs. Edward Goodhand and Miss Clara Price. The next meeting of the club will be held on December fifth, at which time plans will be made for the annual Christmas party.

The graduating class of Tri-County high school received their class rings last week. The rings are very handsome, and the students are quite proud of them. There are seven in the 1940 class: Misses Marie Hutchison, Marie Usilton, Anne Jones, Mildred Walters, Esther Skinner, Messrs. Jas. Skipper and Thomas Morris.

Mrs. Byron Barton, Sr., is spending sometime in Baltimore.

Mrs. M. S. Cooper, principal of Tri-County high school, has been quite sick with a bad cold, but is better, we are glad to report.

Tri-County high school had four of its athletes selected as members of the Queen Anne's County All-Stars. They are: Robert Magrogan, Thomas Morris, William Moore, first team; and William Taylor Skinner, second team. The field ball teams had one each from Tri-County, Miss Pauline Baker and Miss Marie Hutchinson, respectively. Sorry, Miss Dorothy Blades name should also be included here.

Mr. Alvan Moore, of Randolph Field, Texas, was a week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Moore.

Mrs. Oscar Briscoe was a recent guest of her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Briscoe, of Salisbury.

Mr. Donald Flowers, of Penn's Grove, N. J., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Flowers.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in St. Paul's Methodist Church, Queen Anne's on Thanksgiving morning, November twenty-third. Rev. A. W. Strick-

PONDTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Guth and daughter, Miss Edith, and son, Buddy, of Marydel, and Mrs. Emma Camedson, of Henderson, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Alexander.

Mr. Theodore Blackiston, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blackiston.

Mr. John Holden and Mr. Wallace Jones, of Sudlersville, visited in our midst recently.

Mr. William E. Lynch was quite sick for a few days this past week.

Mr. Gilbert Brown, Jr., of Wilmington, visited friends in our midst here one evening recently.

John Froelich, Iowa, built the first practical tractor, in 1812. Froelich was a merchant.

ALL EYES ON THE SKIES

Randolph Scott, Margaret Lindsay, Mary Healy, Preston Foster and Robert Shaw in a scene from "20,000 Men A Year," the Cosmopolitan production for 20th Century-Fox set against a background of the CAA civilian pilot training program. The film comes to the Stevesville Opera House Saturday, November 18. Also will show at the Churchill Theatre Saturday through Wednesday, November -20-21-22.

CRUMPTON

Mr. and Mrs. James Bowers were visited on Saturday by relatives of Chester, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Rubsamen entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hood and children, of Ridley Park, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Dold, of Narbeth, Pa., was entertained by Mrs. Mary Sheppard on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Rubsamen spent several days this week in Philadelphia and Wilmington.

Mrs. Bowers and Mrs. Story spent Tuesday with Mrs. Pere Lynch.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones, of Baltimore, were over-night guest with Mrs. Jones' aunt, Mrs. Mae Sparks.

After spending the week with Mrs. Clarence Tucker, of Sudbrook, Mrs. Spencer Merrick returned home Friday accompanied by her son, Spencer, who week-ended here.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of Double Creek, held their annual turkey supper here Saturday evening, serving more than two hundred suppers, and realizing about one hundred dollars.

Mrs. Mary L. Tarbutton is spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. Cosh Walls.

Mr. Harry and Frank Wilds, of Philadelphia, and Wilmington, spent Sunday with their aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ewing, of Newark, Del., Mrs. Monteith and daughters, of Wilmington, and Miss Edna Coleman, all spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Wills and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Young, of Baltimore, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Karl Rubsamen Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, of Wilmington, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Fennimore, Sunday.

Miss Ethel Ryland returned home Sunday last from a week's visit with relatives and a day spent at Philadelphia.

CHESTER

Miss Myrtle Coleman and sister, Lydia, and Mr. Clifton Coleman, Mrs. Milton Bushman, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of their mother, Mrs. Joseph Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. James Abbott and daughter, Dot, and son, Whitefield, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Jones and daughter, Lois, were week-end visitors with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Luther V. Jones, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bell, of Glen Rock, Pa., were week-end guests of his mother, Mrs. Lee Bell, and Sunday Mrs. Frank Clifford and Mrs. Baker, of Baltimore, were here dinner guests.

Miss Ruth Kolata and Miss Beatrice Roe were week-end guests of Miss Elizabeth Stallings.

Rev. James F. Langrall spent last week in Baltimore with Rev. Warren Reese to assist him in his revival meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harris and son, Billy, were week-end guests of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coursey.

Miss Catherine Kirwan has returned home after a visit in Baltimore with friends.

Mr. Edward Brown, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mrs. William R. Brown.

Mrs. Ellison Coleman, and Mrs. Austin Jones, were Easton visitors last Thursday to visit their sister, Mrs. Emory Wyatt who was a patient at Easton Emergency Hospital.

Mrs. James Chance is spending sometime in Baltimore with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Leonard Brown spent last Wednesday in Annapolis to visit Mrs. Milford Brown, a patient at the Emergency Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Conaway and son, and wife, of Georgetown, Del., were Sunday guests of her father, Mr. William Legg and sister, Miss Julia Legg.

Mr. William Edinfield, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mr and Mrs. Thomas Seward.

Miss Doras Legg, of Salisbury Normal School, was week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs Oscar Legg, of Romancoke.

DEAD OR DISABLED ANIMALS
PROMPTLY REMOVED BY CALLING
PHONE HILLSBORO 11-F-3
CORDOVA RENDERING COMPANY

Essotane GAS SERVICE
METERED SERVICE
HAPPY COOKING SERVICE
Essotane DOES THREE BIG JOBS
... Cooking
... Hot Water Heating
... Refrigeration
CALLAHAN & DOWNES
CENTREVILLE PHONE 144
Representing
CHESAPEAKE GAS EQUIPMENT CORP.
OF EASTON - MARYLAND

Announcing

Two Smart Collections of

CHRISTMAS CARDS

Burgoyne & Brownie's Blockprints

As In Previous Years Each Customer Will Have The Exclusive Use of The Card He Selects

We Suggest An Early Selection

THE QUEEN ANNE'S RECORD & OBSERVER PUBLISHING COMPANY

CENTREVILLE PHONE 1