In Memoriam

In loving memory of WILLIAM J. KIMBLES who passed away, Decemer 23, 1937.

Long days long nights he bore pain.
He waited for cure, but all in vain
Till God himself knew what was best,
And took him home and gave him rest.
You are not forgotten father dear;
Nor ever shall you be—
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.
He passed on to that eternal place
Where all is bright and fair,
And angels wait to welcome you
When its good-night here and
Good morning up there.

WIFE and FAMILY.

INGLESIDE

The Christmas entertainment will be held Sunday night.

Mrs. Walter Dukes and Mrs. Howard Dukes and daugthers visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gause of Preston on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis and Mrs. Lester Spry were in Dover on Saturday.

The many friends of Mr. Rodgers Wilson, Jr., are glad to know he is at home after being a patient in Union Memorial Hospital for the past three weeks.

The Homemakers' Club held their Christmas party Monday night at the school. The members found out who their Capsula sisters were for the past year, and drew their new ones for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bostic were in Wilmington on Saturday.

Letters To Santa

Dear Santa Claus:
I am seven years old, and I have two brothers. Will you please bring us a Christmas tree. I have not been as good as I could be, but I will try hard to be good from now on. Please bring me a new bike. Put some small articles in my stocking, which is hung over the fireplace. If you think I have been good enough, you can bring me these things, but if you think I do not deserve them, I will not be disappointed.
JOHN WOLFE TROY.
5634 Ridgedale Ave.,
Dallas, Texas.

Dear Santa:
I am a little girl, 9 years old, I have tried to be a very good girl and help my mother and daddy. I hope you don't forget all the good little girls and boys this year. I am sick in bed now, but my doctor says that he wants me to get well for Christmas. I would like for you to bring me a sink, a doctor and nurse's kit and six matching napkins. I will be sure to hang up my stocking for you to fill.
Your little girl,
SHIRLEY PALMER.
Chester, Md.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me an electric train, a cowboy suit, scooter, and I would certainly like to have a tractor if you think that I have been good enough. Thanking you; from your little three-year-old boy,
REGGIE JONES.

FIFTY-FOUR of us tried hard to express,
Our Wish for Your Christmas Happiness;
In Vain, we've searched out all sorts of words,
We've thought of everything from beasts to birds;
The more we thought the less we could find,
To express the wishes we have in mind;
So we decided the best thing to do,
Is Say "MERRY CHRISTMAS and GOD BLESS YOU".
