LOCAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, May 10, 1871.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

Democratic State Convention.—The Executive Committee of the Democratic Conservative party, in pursuance of a call of the Chairman, Joshua Vansant, Esq., held a meeting on Thursday, at Eldon Hall, Baltimore. There was a full attendance of members. A resolution was adopted recommending the Democratic and Conservative voters of the various counties and the city of Baltimore to appoint delegates to meet in State Convention, in the city of Baltimore, on Wednesday, the 19th of July, to nominate candidates for Governor, Attorney General and Comptroller of the State Treasury, to be voted for at the State election in November ne xt.

OUR CIRCUIT COURT.—The April Term of the Circuit Court adjourned after a session of exactly one week, being the shortest jury term within the memory of man. Our people have been justly pleased as well as surprised at the circumstance, and there are various inquiries as to the causes of the same.

They are in brief these. First there were rather fewer trial cases than usual but secondly and chiefly because of the excellent assault and battery law introduced last session of the Legislature by Sam. W. Woolford Esq., one of our Delegates, and supported by his colleagues in the House and Mr. Henry in the Senate, until in the face of considerable opposition it became a law.

The Editor of this paper, a lawyer, originally had great doubts as to the expediency of such a law, but experience in the Courts has satisfied him that they were groundless and he takes opportunity to publicly acknowledge the very great benefits conferred on the people of our county by the sagacity of its framers.

If, as estimated, each day of our court session costs the taxpayers of our county $250., then the removal of assault and battery cases to the jurisdiction of magistrates saves about four days each jury term, as we have occasion to know, and hence $1000, are twice a year saved from the expenses of the county. And this is not all, for outside of the direct expense, important causes were very frequently kept waiting a week upon these trials for assault and battery, and numerous witnesses detained in attendance, thus involving great expense to litigants as well as material loss to the productive interests of the community at large.

We repeat that it is a good law, and the thanks of our people are due to its founders.

FRANCE.—Unhappy Frenchmen are still slaughtering one another around the walls of Paris, those outside trying to get in and those in striving to keep them out, and so far as the world knows this is the sole cause of contention between them. There is no change in the political situation. Some hundreds of French women are widows and some thousands of French children are orphans each week, and the soil of France is enriched by the blood of her children. That is all.

Samuel R. Pennington can always be found early and late at his place of business on Poplar Street next door to Bramble's Hotel prepared to give satisfaction in every department of the tailoring business. No words of commendation are necessary to his old customers, and all he asks of others is that they will give him a trial.

PHOTOGRAPHIC GALLERY.—Mr. J. J. Pattison is at his old stand above the Post office prepared to execute faithful photographs &c, in the latest styles and upon the most reasonable terms. This is the best season of the year, when the sky is bright and the atmosphere is clear and pure, to obtain life-like pictures of those we love, and let everybody who loves anybody give him a call.

LAW NOTICE.—Messrs Henry & Sullivane, Attorneys at Law, have removed their place of business to the office on High street immediately opposite Brohawn's Hotel. D. M. Henry Jr., has taken their former office.

MESSRS. WM. C. LITTLETON & SON, are still on hand with a handsome stock of spring goods, and utterly defy any man to come to their shop and go away dissatisfied with either the quality of their goods or the excellence of their fit.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The Bishop of Diocese, the Right Rev. Henry C. Lay, D. D. will officiate in St Stephen's Church, East New Market on Sunday the 21st inst. at 10½ A. M., at Christ Church Cambridge, the 21st at 8. P. M., at St Paul's Vienna, on the 22nd at 11. A. M.

RAIL ROAD.—The attention of the public is called to the change in the time table of the D. & D. R. R. in another column.

The Hon. James M. Mason of Virginia died on the 28th of April, near Alexandria, and died honored and regretted by all that is left of honesty and intelligence in the American nation.

A VOICE FROM BOSTON.—The patient energy of the South under the goading tyranny of Congress, and the incompetent and corrupt officials who are encouraged by Congress, entitles it to the highest praise. It has steadily pursued a course of frugality and industry that cannot fail not merely to restore its material wealth and prosperity, but develop both to an unprecedented degree. And, while frugal and industrious, and submitting to exactions greater than have ever been imposed upon a conquered people, it has given an example of commercial honor which should go far to condone any previous faults.—One million of dollars of indebtedness contracted before the war has been redeemed, payments to that amount having been made by Southern merchants to one house alone, that of Claflin & Co., in New York, since the return of peace; and doubtless instances of similar good faith are within the experience of other mercantile houses in the North.—Boston Post.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR RULOFF.—Samuel Langhorne" writes to the editor of the New York Tribune, and after reciting the testimony of Prof. Mather and others as to Ruloff's (the learned burglar-murderer) prodigious capabilities and attainments, concludes as follows:

"If a life be offered up on the gallows to atone for the murder Ruloff did, will that suffice? If so give me the proofs, for, in all earnestness and truth, I aver that in such a case I will instantly bring forward a man who, in the interests of learning and science, will take Ruloff's crime upon himself, and submit to be hanged in Ruloff's place. I can, and will do this thing; and I propose this matter, and make this offer in good faith. You know me, and know my address."

The Tribune appropriately prefixes the communication with the query, "Have we a Sydney Carton among us?"

AN EXCITING SCENE.—Several Sundays ago, a collection was to be taken up in one of our churches and, in the absence of one of the regular collectors, a frisky young man volunteered his services and handed around his hat with great industry and success. When he got near the door, he was about to go out, with the hat full of money on his head, when the minister said, solemnly, "Young man, if you leave here with that money, you'll be damned." The young man, however, left in a hurry, and as he shut the door behind him, a worthy old brother, with a voice on F sharp, who had put a dollar in the hat, piped out to the minister, "Well, if he aint gone with it, I'll be d—d!"—Halifax Record.

WHEN CHURCH SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE BINDING.—A case has recently been decided by the Supreme Court of Ohio involving the validity of subscriptions for church purposes. The general principle established is, that after a church has incurred any liabilities on the strength of subscriptions, these subscriptions were legally binding. In the case decided the subscription was for the payment of a church debt, and the court held that the subscriber was bound to pay. A subscription may be withdrawn before there is an indebtedness, but not afterward.

☞ The decision of the United States Supreme Court in the legal tender cases was announced on Tuesday. The majority of the Court held that the Legal Tender Act was constitutional, both as to contracts made prior to its passage and subsequently. The Chief Justice and Justices Nelson, Clifford and Field dissented. The opinions will be read before the close of the term.

A Vermonter has had $3 damages awarded him for being butted over a fence by his neighbor's bull. The smallness of the sum is due to the plaintiff's avowal that he was trying to get over the fence as quickly as possible, so that the bull helped him in carrying out an intention conceived of his own free will.

IS GENERAL SHERMAN UP FOR THE PRESIDENCY?—He is certainly out against General Grant on the Ku-Klux question and on the St. Domingo question, and we think if the democrats are possessed of common sense they will understand that this means business.—N. Y. Herald.

"VERY WISE.—I had rather pay a little more money and get a good article.—That is wise, to be sure, but suppose you can get the very best article and not have to pay a little more! How then? This is the case with Wanamaker & Brown's clothing; it is "best" as well as "cheapest."

☞ IF YOU CANNOT READ FROM THIS END

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1868.

Allow me to call your attention to my

Preparation of Compound Extract Buchu.

The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries; very little sugar is used, and a small proportion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,

With a feeling of confidence,
I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD,
Chemist and Druggist,
of 16 Years' Experience.

[From the Largest Manufacturing Chemist in the World.]

NOVEMBER 4, 1854.

"I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. HELMBOLD; he occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise."

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu

Is the great specific for Universal Lassitude, Prostration, &c.

The constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or insanity ensues.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract of Buchu,

In affections peculiar to Females, is unequalled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, or the decline or change of life.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu and Improved Rose Wash

Will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superceding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

Use Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu

In all diseases of these organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.

Sold by Druggists everywhere. PRICE —$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

Trustees Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, sitting as a court of Equity, the undersigned as Trustees will offer at public sale, in the town of Federalsburg, in front of the Hotel of S. H. Smith, Esq., on SATURDAY the 20th day of MAY, 1871, between the hours of 11 o'clock A. M., and 3 o'clock P. M.

All those tracts or parts of land, lying and being in Dorchester county, whereof Joseph Vickers, died seized, and which were after his death laid off and assigned to Mary H. Vickers, his widow, as her dower under and by virtue of a commission issued out of the Circuit Court for Caroline, Co., viz:

All that tract or parcel of land known as "THE ARTHUR WILLIS TRACT," situated on the county road leading from Federalsburg to Johnson's Cross Roads, containing 234 acres of land, more or less.

Another tract or parcel of land adjoining the first mentioned tract, and containing 253 acres, more or less.

And all that tract or parcel of land adjacent to the aforementioned tracts, called "SMALL PART OF THE BRILEY LAND," containing 26 acres, more or less.

These lands are situated in a good neighborhood in the Fork District of the county aforesaid, within a mile of the Oak Grove Station of the Dorchester and Delaware rail road. They are well set with valuable Timber, have a due proportion of arable land, are finely adapted to the growth of corn, fruits, vegetables, &c., and have the usual farm buildings upon them.

The terms of sale as prescribed by the decree are $400, in cash on the day of sale, the balance of the purchase money to be paid in four equal annual instalments, the interest on the whole of the deferred purchase money to be paid annually, and to be secured by the bonds of the purchaser or purchasers with sureties at be approved by the trustees. Deeds and stamps to the expense of the purchaser.

Manhood:
How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

GIVE PATRONS FOR A FEW MINUTES, HE RESUMED)
But let me not despair, and trust to Providence,
I'll rise above the occasion cheer up—and screw
My courage to the sticking place,—cholics I Must have, and as I have often heard
A rather honest-thinking man, but somehow very reduced in circumstances, was overheard a few nights since, soliloquizing a la Hamlet in a manner such as follows:
To buy or not to buy, that is the question:
Whether 'tis more suitable to the body, to suffer
The drenching and pelting of contending elements;
Or draw my starvelikened purse against a sea of troubles,
And by buying, end them? To shed—to dress anew:
No more—and, by dressing anew, to say we end
The ills of man, and other necessities that flesh
Is heir to—'tis a consummation devoutly to be wished.
To buy;—to sell;—to dress anew: perchance at the Expense of other wants—Ay, there's the rub;
For after this new outfit, what's next to come?
When I have shaken off these time worn shreds and patches,
Must give pause: There's the world's option
That puts us to so many inconveniences in life:
For who would bear the scoffs and jeers of a populace,
The street boys ridicule, the ladies sneer,
The spurns
That patient modesty of the unworthy takes,
When he himself might his quietus make,
By the bare outlay of some paltry trash.
Who wear such rags and battle with contempt
For and obscurity,
But that the dread of something after a new Barrenness—
No appeal stands current,—puzzles the
Then start about in new ones when means are short?
And makes us rather content with our old clothes,
Than start about in new ones when means are short!
