LOCAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 23, 1871.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Divine service may be expected at Trinity Church, Church Creek, on Sunday next Sept 27, at 10½ A. M., and at Trinity Chapel, Taylors Island, at 3½ P. M., in the afternoon of the same day.
aug. 21 1871.

SEWING MACHINE NOTICE.—We are requested to give notice that Mr. G. E. Sadler, Agent, of Singer & Co. will remain in Dorchester only a week or two longer, and all persons desirous of seeing him will please call at Dorchester House.

LAND SALE.—A. H. Bayly Esq., Jr., has purchased the beautiful little farm, on the Choptank river near Cambridge, formerly owned by S. T. Milbourne, Esq., and will henceforth reside among us. We congratulate the community on so desirable an acquisition, and him on returning to the home of his birth.

BAD ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last as Levin E. Tubman was engaged in some repairs on Mr. Crawford's mill, below Church Creek, a block fell upon him severely injuring the skull, and at last advices his life was despaired of.

MISTAKE.—By an error not detected until too late, the cash required by Col. Woolford in his advertisement of the valuable Nicolls Estate in last week's issue, was stated to be $5000, It should have been $500. See advertisement in to days paper.

POLITICAL.—The Hon. Wm. Pinkney Whyte opened the campaign with a telling speech in Baltimore County last week, in which he predicted that the Radicals would be compelled to take a "new departure" before long, viz; a departure from the White House.

TWO FIRES FROM SPONTANEOUS IGNITION.—On Tuesday the 15th inst. the stables on the Hambrook's farm, owned by Dr E. G. Waters, and the surrounding buildings were destroyed by fire, it having originated in some damp straw stowed in the loft. Loss about $2000, and no insurance. Two days later, a lot of sea ores that had been spread out in the sun to dry on the beach below the house, also spontaneously ignited and was consumed.

FINE ARTS.—In our advertising columns appears a notice of the celebrated engraving "Lady Washington's Reception." It is composed of a group of many of the most distinguished characters of the Revolution attending an evening at the mansion of Washington We have seen this beautiful work of art and cannot too highly applaud it. We expect shortly to possess a copy, when it can be seen at the law office of Henry & Sulivane.

Retribution.—Gen Grant has made the first use of the power given him by the Ku-Klux bill, against Republicans. He ordered U. S. Troops to New Orleans about ten days ago to attend the State Convention of the Republican party, took forcible possession of the Assembly Hall and excluded by Military power the delegates opposed to the faction of Casey his brother-in-law, Geo. Warmouth and his faction of rascals then bolted the Convention, denounced Gen. Grant and set up a party of their own. The old adage seems likely to be verified anew in Louisiana. "When thieves fall out honest men come by their own."

DISTRESSING CASE OF DROWNING.—On Wednesday afternoon last, while a party of little girls were rowing about in Cambridge Creek, a little boy about two years of age, the son of Prof. Baugher, who was with the party, suddenly sprang from the arms of one of the girls who was holding him and fell overboard. His sister, Miss May Baugher, a young lady of about fourteen years, on the impulse of the moment sprang over to the assistance of her little brother, and the wind and waves preventing the children in the boat from returning speedily to the assistance of their companions, they sank before help from the shore could reach them. Their bodies were recovered from the bottom of the creek and animation was finally restored to the boy, who is now well, but all efforts to resuscitate Miss Baugher were fruitless, and the heroic girl has left her father on earth to go to the bosom of her Father in Heaven Deep and general sympathy is felt for the unhappy parents who have much endeared themselves to our people during their sojourn among us.

P. S. We learn that a subscription has been started to erect a monument to the memory of this noble little girl. All persons wishing to contribute to so laudable an object will please call on Dr. J. N. Baird of this town.

ALARMING.—On Friday last we happened to overhear Mr. E. A. Marshall, our energetic constable, tell a gentleman, a stranger from abroad, who for a day or two had been sitting about loose in the streets of Cambridge with nothing in particular to do but kick his heels against goods boxes, that "he shouldn't be sitting down here doing nothing;" that "he must get up and go and do something or he would put him in jail." Now while it seemed to us to be taking tolerably high ground to say that here in America a man can't stand up when he wants to stand and sit down when he choses to do it without permission from any body, still we have always heard that liberty carried to an extreme is license. That our friend Mr. Marshall takes this view is evident, and it is well known that in no spot in America is the said right of American freemen to sit down and kick goods boxes more jealously maintained and freely exercised than in Cambridge. Mr. M. is known to be an earnest man when he does set himself to do a thing, and is a man of his word, and hence we have felt much concerned for that large and highly respectable class of our citizens who in fancied security have been and apparently intend keeping on exercising this valuable privilege. We therefore, as is our duty as a journalist, sound the alarm, and warn our friends that unless they "get up and do something" they will very unexpectedly find themselves in the clutches of the law.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle,
Be a hero in the strife!

LIFE INSURANCE.—We learn that the late Nathan Vickers was insured in the Penn Mutual Life Ins. Co., for the sum of $2,500. When this is paid it will make about $15,000 paid in this county by E. B. Duval, Esq., General Agent of the Company for this State, in the course of two years. About $12,000 of this have been paid on different policies within almost a stone's throw of East New Market. Our citizens should be congratulated upon their prudence and forethought, and also that they should have selected a company of such standing as the "Penn," which has not only paid promptly but offered the money in advance. We should mention that Mr. Duval was here last month to settle the loss on the life of the late James H. Wright of $4,000. The delay in this case was owing to the death of Mrs. Wright, trustee named in the policy of the husband. She declined to apply for immediate payment, and just as the 60 days elapsed she died, when the company had to wait for Mr. Nicolls Wright to administer on her estate, and Mr. Duval came down and settled with that gentleman. We hear that he will be in our county this week to arrange the papers of the late Mr. Vickers and transact the business. His policy holders and others wishing to see him will find him at the Bramble House.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Who is there so poor that he does not wear clothing? Who is there so devoid of taste that he does not wish good clothes, when he purchases? Then call at the shop of Wm. C. Littleton & Son and get yourself fitted up in handsome style, for in make, material and all that goes to make up a first class suit of clothing they yield to none.

What is the use of wearing ill made clothes when you can get yourself up in elegant trim by calling at I. N. Elston's on High Street and letting him take your measure? all who have been there" say he can do it.

Mr. Elston, has for years been known as one of the best "fitters" ever engaged in the tailoring business in our town and guarantees satisfaction.

There may be those who think that because Mr. Samuel R. Pennington has had of late an unusually heavy press of business, he will not have the time to attend promptly to orders, but this is not the case. That enterprising and popular Tailor has largely increased his force, and is still prepared, as heretofore, to execute all work entrusted to him with neatness and despatch. All he wants is a trial.

NATURE'S HAIR RESTORATIVE is the result of four years study and experiment. It is now perfection itself, and do more to be compared with the other preparations now flooding the market, than "tanglefoot" welsky is to pure Bourbon. See advertisement.

"Lady Washington's Reception Day."

THE pictorial scene of "Lady Washington's Reception" recalls the golden days of our Republic. The Lady Washington Art Association of New York, having become owners of the beautiful print of Lady Washington's Reception Day by A. H. Ritchie, N. A. which is after an oil painting by Daniel Huntington, N. A. (now in possession of A. T. Now in order to place this fine work of artistic merit in possession of all lovers of the art in the United States, we offer it to the public at $5 per copy (intrinsically worth $20 per copy) in connection with the following named property on the sale of 64,000 copies. 3 Brown Stone Houses, Dean street Brooklyn, N.
