LOCAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 30, 1871.

☞ In pursuance of the official notice, an election for the purpose of choosing four Delegates to represent Cambridge District in the County Nominating Convention, will be held at the Orphans' Court room, in the town of Cambridge, on Saturday afternoon, September 2nd, 1871. The Polls will be opened at 2 o'clock, P. M. and will be closed at 6 o'clock P. M.

All democrats and conservatives who now are, or, at the next November election, will be legal voters in said District, are invited to attend and cast their ballots for Delegates to said convention.

Beckwith's Camp has been a great success this year.

A plain, honest fellow applied recently to an attorney for legal advice. After detailing the circumstances of the case, he was asked if he had stated the facts exactly, as they had occurred "Yes sir,' said he, 'you can put the lies on yourself."

For standard Watches, that you can time a fast horse on a race course with, or by which engineers can run a railroad train, we recommend those of the Norton Watch Factory, 86 Nassau Street, New York.—ILLUSTRATED NEWS, New York.

THE MONUMENT.—We are pleased to learn that the subscription to the Monument, in memory of Miss Eva May Baugher is nearly completed. Those persons who have not subscribed, have now an opportunity of doing so, and Dr. Baird, will be pleased to have their names as early as possible.

A BUSHMEETING.—A Bushmeeting will be held at Hayking's Springs, commencing Sept. 3rd, 1871. Preaching Morning, Evening and Night, the meeting will be Protracted of nights during the week. Hoping that all denominations will take an interest in the work.

J. McINTIRE, Pastor.

THE CITY FATHERS.—On Saturday last the corporation authorities met in solemn council over the affairs of this ancient town. Their deliberations resulted in the following resolutions.

1st, That our bailiff repair the pavements and put the same in perfect order from the Cross-roads to the river.

2nd, That the same official purchase one dozen new pumps for the use of the corporation.

3rd, That to defray the expense of this unusual outlay a levy of 24 cents to the hundred dollars be laid on all the taxable property within the town limits.

COUNTY POLITICS.—Though we have the usual number of gentlemen who are willing at great personal sacrifice to gratify their friends and serve the public in the various offices to be filled by the people this Fall, it seems to us that unusual good humor prevails and the choice of the people for the several offices will be cordially sustained by that portion of the great Democratic party comprised within the limits of Dorset. Without respect to men, that party is as true as steel to its principles, and will as ever present a united front to the enemy in November.

ADVICE TO CANDIDATES.—We wish to warn all engaged in the present struggle for office, that there is a spy in every bush, danger in every breeze, and mines and counter-mines are as thick in every district as leaves in Valhambrosa. Let their every step be cautious and their every word well weighed, for there are pit falls on every side and the very birds of the air will convey and misconstrue the most innocent English ever spoken. After next Monday you may rest in peace, and, the campaign finished, each may murmer to himself a lullaby,

"Soldier rest, thy warfare o'er, &c."

REASSURING.—Since our last issue we have ascertained that we were mistaken as to the views of Mr. Marshall in abruptly disturbing the ease of a gentleman visiting our town, by threatening him with the county jail "if he did not get up and do something."

It seems that our worthy constable had no intention of interfering with those of our people who have secured the right to loafaround by immemorial practice, but was opposed to the demoralizing spectacle of a perfect stranger, a non-resident, an unnaturalized visitor's participating in so free and easy a manner in the customs of the locality. It was subversive of public morals, of sound policy, and was in short, an unauthorized and impertinent intrusion.

Therefore bask on, all ye loafers, in the shade of our beautiful trees, persevere in the course you have so heroically and unflinchingly followed, and the blessing of gods and men be with you.

REMINISCENCES.—We were recently shown by W. Wilson Byrn, Esq., the energetic and enlightened President of the D. & D. Rail Road, copies of the Cambridge Chronicle issued in 1823 and 1824. Gen. Jackson, Mr. Crawford and Mr. Adams were having a lively fight for the Presidency. Dr. Daniel Sulivane Bennett Sulivane and Dr. Francis P. Phelps were candidates for the Legislature, and Robins Pitt was "solicited by many of his friends" to be a candidate but would not. Daniel Martin had lately been and Daniel Waddell was Sheriff. Bond Martin was willing to go to Congress. In short, merely change names and dates, brush off the dust of years, and the Chronicle of 1824 would stand for the Chronicle of 1871. Now as then, our citizens are patriotic and willing to serve the people, and every paper contains evidence of the fact. Full of years and honors, Dr. Phelps remains the sole survivor of that band of politicians who fifty years ago under the name of Jackson and Adams men fought for supremacy in Dorset.

MASONIC NOTICE.—At a meeting of Cambridge Lodge, No. 66, A. F. and A. M. held in Cambridge, on Saturday, August 19, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, to take from our midst our beloved brother, BENJAMIN WOOLFORD,

Therefore, resolved, that while we bow in meek submission to the will of our Supreme Grand Master, we cannot restrain our grief, or keep back the sympathetic tear, while we recall the virtues and excellencies of our departed brother.

Resolved, that in his honorable life, high-minded conduct, steady industry and carefulness, we find much to admire and imitate.

Resolved, that we express to the relatives of our deceased brother, our heart-felt sympathy in their sore bereavement,

Resolved, that we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, that these resolutions be printed in the County papers and copies of them sent to the relatives of our departed friend and brother. By order of W. M.

THOS. H. HANDY, Jr., Sec'y.

Our latter Corn is suffering for want of rain, but with the exception of the extreme lower portion of the County our general crop is better than it has been for years.

Mr. Thomas Webb, of Vienna, now with Holloway, Donohue & Co., lost a valuable horse at Brohawn's Hotel on Monday night. Disease, lung fever

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Who is there so poor that he does not wear clothing? Who is there so devoid of taste that he does not wish good clothes, when he purchases? Then call at the shop of Wm. C. Littleton & Son and get yourself fitted up in handsome style, for in make, material and all that goes to make up a first class suit of clothing they yield to none.

What is the use of wearing ill made clothes when you can get yourself up in elegant trim by calling at I. N. Elston's on High Street and letting him take your measure? all who have "been there" say he can do it.

Mr. Elston, has for years been known as one of the best "fitters" ever engaged in the tailoring business in our town and guarantees satisfaction.

There may be those who think that because Mr. Samuel B. Pennington has had of late an unusually heavy press of business, he will not have the time to attend promptly to orders, but this is not the case. That enterprising and popular Tailor has largely increased his force, and is still prepared, as heretofore, to execute all work entrusted to him with neatness and despatch. All he wants is a trial.

NO MORE GRAY HAIR.—Nature's Hair Restorative brings back the original color. It is not a dye, and clear as crystal. Contains nothing injurious. See advertisement.

Let all persons who desire an excellent photograph call on J. J. Pattison over the Post office. The Editor can vouch for the excellence of his work for he has given him a trial. That is all Mr. P. asks of any one.

White and Red Oak Timber.

The arable land is kind and easily improved, and with proper cultivation can be made very productive, and is suited to the growth of grain, fruit, grasses and vegetables.

The improvements on this farm consist of a comfortable DWELLING HOUSE, with necessary out buildings, in tolerable repair, and a beautiful young ORCHARD of about
