LOCAL & PERSONAL.

WEDNESDAY,.....Oct. 25, 1871.

Democratic Meetings.

Meetings of the Democratic party of Dorchester County, at which the nominees of the recent Convention will be present and address the people, will be held at the following places, at the times designated.

Wednesday, Oct 25th, Taylor's Island, at Smiths' Store. (afternoon)

Wednesday, Oct. 25th, Tobaccostick at Bromwells Store. (night)

Friday, Oct. 27th, Lakes, at J. R. Andrew's Store. (afternoon)

Saturday, Oct. 28th, Straits, at Jones' Store. (afternoon)

Friday, Nov. 3rd, Hoopers Island, at Tolley's Store. (afternoon)

Saturday. Nov, 4th, Cedar Creek, at Insley's Store. (afternoon)

Besides the Candidates, prominent speakers of the party will attend these and other meetings, which will be called as may be deemed necessary.

NOTICE.—All persons indebted to the Chronicle office are requested to settle their bills at the November Term of Court.

POLITICAL.—The political movement that is to save Dorchester for two years more to the party of the Constitution, hard money and low tariff, continues to swell in vigor and importance. On Wednesday last an excellent meeting was held at Church Creek, and on Saturday three of the largest meetings that were ever held in our County in the respective localities, were held at the Drawbridge, Vienna and Federalsburg. A number of speakers addressed the various meetings and were listened to with great attention and frequently applauded.

On Monday the great Mass Meeting at Cambridge took place, and in spite of the very general disappointment prevailing on account of the non-arrival of Mr, Whyte and Mr. Syester, it was one of the most successful meetings we have ever witnessed. It was organized at 11 o'clock with Dr. F. P. Phelps as President, Chas. F. Goldsborough, Samuel Pattison, Col. Jas. Woolford, Sam. W. Woolford, Levin A. Insley, Caleb Jones, Jas. Eccleston, Capt T B. Sherman, Jas N. Wright Isaac W. Lowe, Wm. H. Brinsfield and Wm W. Mace Esq's. as Vice Presidents. Dr. Phelps opened the meeting with a few well chosen introductory remarks, and then introduced W. Pinkney Hamilton Esq. of Baltimore City to the audience who delivered a most telling and effective speech of about an hour's duration, replete with argument and classic illustration He was heartily applauded from time to time, and does really for so young a man give the highest promise of oratorical excellence.

The meeting then adjourned for dinner and at 1½ o'clock reassembled on the Court House green and for an hour and a half or two hours was enchained in rapt attention by the earnest and impressive eloquence of the Hon. Wm. M. Merrick, member of Congress from the 5th Congressional District of Maryland. His able and masterly effort adorned by all that a forcible and cultivated mind, elevated tone and thorough conviction of the right could lend a speech, fully sustained his high reputation, and will give him a lasting reputation as an orator in this section of the State. He depicted in glowing language the three headed monster that is devouring the liberties of America, the National Bank system, the Protective Tariff and the Force Bill He wound up his argument with an earnest appeal to the members of all the old political parties to follow the example of their great leaders and in this hour of the Country's danger to forget old prejudices and rally as a band of brothers around the altar of the Constitution.

While waiting for the arrival of Messrs. Whyte & Syester in the cars, Mr. Laird and Mr. Johnson addressed the meeting with a few pertinent remarks, and then the meeting adjourned.

Drug Store.—Our attention has been called by Mr. CHARLES P. CRAIG to the new and extensive assortment of fancy articles now on hand in his drug store on High St., and they are really worth a visit if only to look at. The HAIR BRUSHES, COMBS, SOAPS, POCKET BOOKS, TOOTH BRUSHES, &c., have been selected with great taste and are sold at prices unprecedentedly low in this latitude. Call and see them.

PREMIUM FRUIT CHROMO!—We have made arrangements with the publisher of Our Own Fireside, to club our paper with his, and now offer both papers for $2 50, and with them a Premium Fruit Chromo which cannot be bought for less than Five Dollars.

OUR OWN FIRESIDE—Is a large, handsome, 16 paged monthly Illustrated Paper for the people, full of fine illustrations, and the best of serial stories. A sample copy of this paper, and the Premium Fruit Chromo can be seen at our office. Subscribe for your home paper and for Our Own Fireside, and receive this handsome Premium Chromo by so doing.

THE RECENT ELECTIONS.—Full returns have not even yet come in from the various counties of Pennsylvania and Ohio, but enough is known to indicate that the Republicans have carried the former state by 10,000 and the latter by 20,000 majority.—Texas has gone Democratic by a majority of 40,000, even the colored element having revolted against the amazing frauds of their radical leaders.

LITERARY ASSOCIATION.—A Lyceum has been organized in Church Creek with Wm. W. Mace Esq., as President, and is represented to be in a flourishing condition. The society meets every Friday night and discusses questions of a literary scientific or historic character, and it will undoubtedly conduce very greatly to the improvement of its members and the community in which it is established. We would like to see a similar association in every neighborhood in Dorset.

COUNTY POLITICS.—Rousing meetings on part of the Democracy continue to be held in various parts of the county and the people are evidently awake to the necessity for action.

The republicans call no meetings to discuss before the people the issues of the day, but are actively at work going about from house to house endeavoring to excite dissatisfaction, breed dissension &c., As said Nelson at Trafalger "Let every man do his duty this day."

BUSINESS LOCALS.

William C. Littleton and Son have on exhibition at their place of business on High Street a new and very handsome assortment of Fall and Winter goods for men and boys, and are prepared as ever to cut out and make the same into wearing apparel in the most stylish manner and on reasonable terms. Give them a call.

Mr. Sam. R. Pennington announces to his friends and the public generally that he is a candidate for their support. He knows that he can please them in every department of the tailoring line, and wants them to sustain him in his efforts to do so. Vox Populi &c.

Let all persons who desire an excellent photograph call on J. J. Pattison over the Post office. The Editor can vouch for the excellence of his work for he has given him a trial. That is all Mr. P. asks of any one.

NOTHING LIKE IT.—We refer to NATURE'S HAIR RESTORATIME, advertised in another column. It is in one bottle, and as clear as ice. No gum, no filth, no poison. Examine it. See advertisement

If you want a suit of well made clothing, or wish any repairing or scouring done in the clothing line, call on I. N. Elston, High St. Cambridge.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

To Consumptives.—The advertiser, having been permanently cured of that dread disease, Consumption, by a simple remedy, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. is complete, and with cheapness in price he combines elegance of style and good workmanship.

Next in line comes his variety of

of which he has laid in a heavier stock than ever before, comprising all the latest styles Felts, Cassimers, and velvets. In

GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, TRUNKS, RUBBER GOODS

He is as usual well supplied, and as to

Boots and Shoes

He would here remark that for want of room he intends discontinuing the sale of them, having just bought enough this season to keep in assortment and sizes, which together with the stock on hand will be run off at Washington, D. C., Nov. 21st, 1870.

Messrs. Lynch & Gomien! Gentlemen! I am very much pleased with the Piano you made for me. It is really a fine instrument in every respect, and is admired by all who have seen and heard it, for its fine tone, delicacy of touch and beauty of finish. Many good musicians and distinguished persons have called since it has been in our parlor and all pronounce it a fine instrument. We ourselves are charmed with it. I shall most certainly recommend it to my friends and all who may wish to purchase. I am very truly and respectfully, Yours,

ELLEN B. E. SHERMAN, 205 1 st.

Our prices are low and terms easy.
