WEDNESDAY.....Dec. 13, 1871.

"One Excitement treads on the Heel of Another."

Scarcely has New York cooled off about the arrival of the Russian Prince, when another arrival sets Cambridge all ablaze, for B. Hainebach has just come back with a new lot of cheap and fashionable Overcoats, Winter suits for Men and Boys, also of Gents Furnishing Goods. Come and look at his latest Styles of Hats, such as the Vanderbilt, Elite, and Duke Alexis.

"Goods always sold at city prices."

☞At the last moment we are compelled to omit the Presidents Message in this week's edition

☞We are indebted to Postmaster General Creswell for a copy of his annual report on the condition of the Post Office Department, in advance of its presentation to Congress.

MEXICO.—This unhappy country is again torn by revolution, and thus far the revolutionists have decidedly the advantage. Several important towns have been taken by them and the government troops are on the retreat.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATURE.—As required by the the constitution, the General Assembly of Maryland will meet on the first Wednesday the third day of January next, and the new Governor will be inaugurated on the second Wednesday of January, to continue in office for four years.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.—The heir apparent of the British throne has had a relapse, and the physicians pronounce his case almost hopeless. Great agitation has been caused in London by the announcement of the news, the republicans are very active, and gold has risen in value.

ANONYMOUS.—We received a note dated Nov. 7th, requesting us to forward in our next issue a receipt for subs. to the Chronicle, paid our predecessor of the Telegraph, to which no name was signed. We are therefore at a loss as to how we shall comply.—We merely mention it by way of excuse for apparent neglect.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.—Capt. Bill Stephens removed on Tuesday 5th, to his former residence on Gay Street and signalized the occasion by as pleasant a little "house warming" as can be imagined. A large number of gentlemen from Cambridge & vicinity availed themselves of the opportunity offered by their hospitable entertainer to open the winter campaign against eggnogg and apple toddy, (the profase use of which in connection with cards and whiskey by our ancestors, first gave name to Merry-Land, afterwards corrupted to Mary-Land, for which see Knickerbocker's History of New York, page 293,) and a merry evening was passed in mirth, music and song.

DEATH FROM BLOWING DOWN A LAMP CHIMNEY.—The Luzerne Union records another terrible accident resulting from the too common practice of blowing down a lamp chimney to extinguish the light. The casualty occured in Cleveland, Pa., a few nights since. Mrs. Elizabeth Stark disrobed to retire about ten o'clock. She attempted to extinguish her coal oil lamp, in a very common manner, by blowing down the chimney. The lamp exploded, throwing over her the blazing liquid, and in an instant she was enveloped in flames and was terribly burned. There seems to be no end to accidents resulting from the careless use of kerosine, and people cannot be too careful how they manage and handle their lighted lamps.

—CHARLES MATHEWS, who is now sixty-eight, and admirably preserved, was asked a few days since by a gentleman how he managed to keep so much health and spirits. "Well," said the comedian, "I've lived a pretty free life, but I aways made it a rule to have eight hours sleep out of the twenty-four. And then I always eat four good, sound meals a day." "But are you not a great smoker?" "Well no, not so very much of a smoker. I begin every morning, it is true, but then I leave off at night."

☞"I don't miss my church as much a you suppose," said a lady to her minister, who had called upon her during her illness, "for I make Betsy sit at the window as soon as the bell begins to chime, and tell me who are going to church and whether they have anything new on or not."

PREMIUM FRUIT CHROMO!—We have made arrangements with the publisher of Our Own Fireside, to club our paper with his, and now offer both papers for $2 50, and with them a Premium Fruit Chromo which cannot be bought for less than Five Dollars.

Be wise in time & stop at Wilson's.

HAVING repaired, painted and papered my HOTEL, and erected a new stable and carriage house, sufficient to accommodate one hundred horses and carriages, I believe that I can give the public as good accommodation, at less price, than any other Hotel in Cambridge. The low price of all produce raised by the farmers, and dullness of the times, will induce me, on and after November 1st, to reduce the charges at my Hotel to the following rates:

Board per day, . . .	90 cts.
Meals, ...	40 "
Lodgings, ...	25 "
Horse feed, (full feed) .	35 "

The long standing reputation of this house is a sufficient guarantee that all who favor me with their patronage will be satisfactorily entertained. Polite and attentive servants always in attendance on my guests.

The public's obedient servant,

MANHOOD: HOW LOST. HOW RESTORED.

JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's 'Marriage Guide,' price 25 cents.
