LOCAL & PERSONAL.

WEDNESDAY,.....Jan. 10, 1872.

Edward Goslin, of Federalaburg, has set out lately two thousand apple trees.

MRS. WHARTON.—This case continues to be complicated by the contradictory evidence of chemists and physicians, and will probably last into next week.

HURST, ROBERTS & Co.—This well known firm in Baltimore City has been dissolved, and Mr. Roberts now carries on the business in his own name at the old stand.

SHEPHERD DOGS.—A pair of Shepherd Pups, now seven months old (in prime for training,) will be exchanged for a couple of Shoats, by applying at the Chronicle Office. To a farmer, this breed of dogs are invaluable.

LOUISIANA.—The republican vagabonds composing the Legislature of Louisiana have at length carried their quarrels so far as to split into two legislatures, each claiming to rightfully represent the State. The military has been called out, violence has been employed on both sides and more is apprehended.

The new School Board of Dorchester County composed of Messrs Hodson, Hicks & Tubman met at the office of the Board on Tuesday last and organized by the election of Dr. Eugene Hodson, as President and Dr. Jas. L. Bryan, as Sec. Treas. & Examiner, after attending to other business, the Board adjourned to meet on Tuesday February 6th 1872.

B. W. SHERMAN Esq.—We notice that this enterprising young gentleman (the son of one of our most respected citzens, Capt. Thomas B. Sherman,) who years ago removed to Louisville Ky., has commenced business upon his own account in that city in the Seed and Agricultural Implement line. The name is the same as heretofore, Sherman & Co.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the prospectus of a new newspaper to be started in Federalsburg on the 7th of February, by Geo. Baker Esq. It will be more especially devoted to local interests and independent in politics, leaning towards a new party to be formed of the moderate elements of the Democratic & Republican parties.—Subscription $1.25 per annum. We extend to the editor a hearty welcome to the fraternity and wish him a prosperous New Year.

OUTRAGE AND RIOT IN NEW YORK.—At Rochester, N. Y, last week a negro ravished a little girl and otherwise mal-treated her so that her life is in danger. A mob attempted to take him from jail for the purpose of hanging him and the military being called out fired into the crowd, killing two men and wounding several others. The criminal plead guilty and was sentenced to twenty years imprisonment in the State Prison. On walking up the steps of the Penitentiary safely escorted by troops, he made insolent gestures of triumph and disdain at the crowd that had followed him.

THE LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature organized on Thursday last by the election of Mr. A. P. Gorman of Howard, as Speaker of the House and Hon. Henry Snyder of Baltimore city, as President of the Senate. Augustus Gassaway was made Clerk of the Senate, and Milton Y. Kidd, clerk of the House. No business was transacted last week and both Houses adjourned over to yesterday, (Tuesday.) Ex-Sheriff, JAS. A. Bramble of our County was appointed Sergeant at Arms of the House and Sol. Smith Esq. of Taylor's Island one of the committee clerks of the Senate.

FEDERALSBURG.—We attended at a fine meeting of the citizens of Federalsburg held on Saturday last to inaugurate a joint-stock manufacturing enterprise in that town. Mr. W. Wilson Byrn presided and Mr. Baker of the Courier acted as Secretary. Addresses were made by Mr. Byrn, Mr. Logan and Mr. Sulivane and we much regretted the being compelled to leave early in order to catch the down train. We have not been able to learn the result, but the idea of utilizing the excellent water power in their neighborhood is worthy of the citizens of a place which has already given no few indications of an enlightened public spirit, and they have our best wishes for their success.

CHANGE OF ROUTE.—The steamer Highland Light will hereafter leave Baltimore at 7 o'clock every Wednesday and Saturday morning for Cambridge, Oxford and Easton, returning on Mondays and Thursdays, leaving at 7 o'clock A. M.

GOV. BOWIE.—On Thursday last Gov. Bowie sent in his last annual Message to the Legislature of the State, and we have read with admiration a document which in all that marks high-toned executive ability will compare favorably with anything of the kind that has emanated from any of the long list of talented men who have occupied the Gubernatorial chair of Maryland. That portion of the Message particularly which treats of the gradual encroachment of the Federal Government upon the reserved powers of the Governments of the States is a masterpiece, and in its elevated American tone and just appreciation of the true safeguards of liberty, irresistibly carries back the mind to the best and purest days of the Republic. It is quite lengthy and we much regret that we have not space to publish it in full as it should be read by every citizen of the State. We will endeavor during the week to procure a number of the printed copies when any one who wishes can procure one by calling at our office.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE, for 1872, is one of the prettiest things of the kind we ever saw. It contains 120 pages, a photograph of the proprietor, several finely colored engravings, and illustrations of two or three hundred flowers and vegetables. It is sent for 10 cents (not one fifth its cost) on application to James Vick, Nursery and Seedsman, Rochester, New York.

I was getting gray and didn't like it, NATURES HAIR RESTORATIVE restored the color of my hair, cleansed my scalp and pleased me wonderfully. Nothing like it in the market, nor ever was or ever will be. See advertisement.

A NEGRO boy of eight has a picture primer to teach him his letters. One of the pictures is that of a bull chasing a boy, which the little darkey watches from day to day, gleefully exclaiming, "He hasn't cotched him yet."

A writer from the African diamond fields says he attended a dance where he saw a sign which read "No gentleman allowed without pants."

BUSINESS LOCALS.

"One Excitement treads onthe Heel of Another."

Scarcely has New York cooled off about the arrival of the Russian Prince, when another arrival sets Cambridge all ablaze, for B. Hainebach has just come back with a new lot of cheap and fashionable Overcoats, Winter suits for Men and Boys, also of Gents Furnishing Goods. Come and look at his latest Styles of Hats, such as the Vanderbilt, Elite, and Duke Alexis.

"Goods always sold at city prices."

William C. Littleton and Son have on exhibition at their place of business on High Street a new and very handsome assortment of Fall and Winter goods for men and boys, and are prepared as ever to cut out and make the same into wearing apparel in the most stylish manner and on reasonable terms. Give them a call.

Who wants a suit of good clothing, made up in the latest style, with expedition, and at as cheap rates as can be found in Dorchester County? Who wants any repairing, scouring &c, done cheaply and at once? He has only to call on SAM. R. PENNINGTON at his place of business on Poplar St., and his wishes will receive immediate attention.

If you want a suit of well made clothing, or wish any repairing or scouring done in the clothing line, call on I. N. Elston, High St, Cambridge.

Wilmington Daily Commercial.

SIXTH YEAR.

THE WILMINGTON COMMERCIAL has earned a wide and honorable reputation as a fair, liberal, independent, and enterprising news journal.

WILMINGTON now has 35,000 people; is growing with extraordinary rapidity; and commands national attention as the location of great, varied, and important industries, a railway centre of increasing consequence, and a tide-water port of great natural advantages.

The COMMERCIAL is justly regarded as the organ of this commercial and industrial city. It seeks, moreover to report quickly and accurately, the news of the whole Delaware Peninsula, and of those sections of Maryland, Pennsylvania and New Jersey closely associated with Wilmington. It reflects on all current public questions, the views of the liberal and progressive elements of the community and supports, until such time as they cease to merit approval, the measures of the Republican Party.

In Wilmington, the Commercial is delivered at 12 cents per week. By mail, it will be sent for $6.00 per annum, or 50 cents per month.
