The trial of Stokes will probably not occur until February.

☞The personal property of S. A. ROBERTSON, will be sold at public sale to-day.

The Right Rev. John McGill, Roman Catholic Bishop of Virginia, died at Richmond on Monday Jan. 15th after a protracted illness, at the age of 62 years.

Absence from home for the past two weeks has prevented our personal attention to our paper, but our place has been more than supplied by the young and talented member of the Dorchester Bar, D. M. Henry Jr.

ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK FOR 1872. We have received this most valuable work from the publishers and find it replete with useful information. It contains the stamp laws, postal laws, voting populations of Maryland, Delaware & Pennsylvania, endless receipts &c., and its price is but 20 cents by mail Address Jenkins & Atkinson, Wilmington, Del.

MD. AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—The Spring term of this prosperous Institution will begin February 1st, 1872. A limited number of "State Scholarships" may be secured by an immediate application. For Catalogue, &c., address REV. SAMUEL REGISTER, President Agricultural College, P. O., Prince George co.

IT HAS been estimated by Mr. Leo Knott, States Attorney of Baltimore, that the Wharton trial will cost $25,000; another gentleman officially connected with the case thinks it will not reach over $18,000 or $20,000. This does not include the expenses of Mrs. Wharton's witnesses outside of the State, as the city will only defray their mileage within the State's limits. Anne Arundel county issues the certificates of indebtedness, receives the money from Baltimore city and disburses it to the proper creditors.

U. S. SENATOR.—The Maryland Legislature on Friday last elected the Hon. George R. Dennis, of Somerset U. S. Senator to succeed Hon. George Vickers whose time expires April 4th 1873. The voting for a while was close between Gen. Vickers, D. M. Henry and Dr. Dennis, but in Democratic caucus on Thursday evening the latter was elected by a vote of 58 to 13 for Mr. Henry and 12 for Gen. Vickers. This result will be a severe disappointment to the people of Dorchester who almost to a man had set their hearts upon the election of their present representative in the Senate of Maryland.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE for February contains the usual abundant and varied amount of good things for a family magazine. We mention in particular new music, the Highland Lancers; Poetry, Winter Winds; Marrying for Money; A Woman's Poem; Mother and Child, etc; an Excellent Story, The Professor's Wife; Jennie June's second article on the Physical Life of Woman, "What Education does for Girls" and other articles; full record of the Fashions and new designs for ladies and children, profusely illustrated, Ladies' Club, Household, Music Drama, Literary and Art, etc., etc.—$3 yearly. Published by W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

Moore's Rural New-Yorker, which has for a score of years been the favorite and fireside journal throughout the land, is characterized as "the most elegantly printed, ably edited, widely circulated and heartily welcomed paper, as a whole, which now finds its way among the people." But, popular as it has been heretofore, the reduced price of the RURAL for 1872 must increase its circulation. It always manifests the true spirit of its Motto, 'Excelsior,' and Objects, "Progress and Improvement," and in the language of its editor and publisher—whose liberality to his brethern of the press is proverbial—we may add that "next to your local paper MOORE'S RURAL is the one for yourself, family and friends."

It opens its XXVth Volume with a most beautiful and artistic vignette heading, and comprises (including Supplement) twenty four pages of four columns each. The price of the RURAL NEW-YORKER has been reduced to $2.50 per year to single subscribers, and only $2 in clubs. Address D. D. T. MOORE, 5 Beekman, St., New York

CHANGE OF ROUTE.—The steamer Highland Light will hereafter leave Baltimore at 7 o'clock every Wednesday and Saturday morning for Cambridge, Oxford and Easton, returning on Mondays and Thursdays, leaving at 7 o'clock A. M.

☞The London Times says that the U. S. authorities, in view of their late experiences with the Florida, Hornet and Virginia, should be satisfied that the prevention of illegal equipments by England during the civil war was "prodigiously difficult." It also hints that the Fenian raids upon Canada might have been more promptly and effectually checked

UPWARD of Forty Thousand bottles of Nature's Hair Restorative were sold from Jan. 1st to June 1st, which fact tells its own story. Its so clean, and looks so nice that the ladies are all delighted with it. See advertisement.

☞A hen-pecked husband, who had married his wife because she was handsome, declared that "a thing of beauty is a jaw forever."

Book Notices.

Bright Beautiful and Cheery, with the vigor of youth and the wisdom of age, comes the first number of the XXXIst Annual Volume of the American Agriculturist, bearing upon its pages fifty interesting and instructive engravings, and a fund of information in its well filled columns, which are freighted with a great variety of practical, trustworthy hints, that must be of great utility to every reader, whether living in City, Village, or Country. It is down on all shams and humbugs, and its showing up of these is alone worth all it costs. The American Stock Journal.—Many persons suppose it is impossible to publish a good practical paper outside of certain cities. We simply ask such to send for a specimen copy of the JOURNAL, and let it speak for itself.—The January number is full of good practical articles, handsomely illustrated by over twenty engravings of Horses, Farm Buildings, Sheep, Swine, Poultry, Pigeons, &c. This JOURNAL is edited by men that have had a long and practical experience in Farming and Stock Breeding, we think they will satisfy any one, that persons can be practically engaged in this business, and yet edit a presentable paper. The Veterinary Department is in charge of experienced Veterinary Surgeons, who answer through the JOURNAL all questions relating to Sick, Injured, or Diseased Animals, free of charge. Specimen copies sent gratis, by N. P. BOYER & Co., Publishers, Parkesburg, Pa.

VALUABLE EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN SEEDS given away. Mr. N. P. Boyer the senior publisher of the AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL, while traveling in Europe the past summer, was particularly impressed with the great value of Lucerne, for the feeding or soiling of stock. He has, therefore, imported a large quantity for gratuitous distribution among our American farmers.—Any of our subscribers who may wish to test it, will receive a small sample package free, by enclosing stamps to pay postage. Address N. P. BOYER & Co., Parkesburg, Chester Co., Pa. They will also send sample packages of Chester County Mammoth Corn, Imported White Norway Oats, and Alsike Clover if wanted, they sent out over 100,000 free sample packages last year.
