LOCAL & PERSONAL.

WEDNESDAY,.....Feb. 21, 1872.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

There have been two thousand bushels of oyster's shipped overthe Dorchester and Delaware Railroad during the past three days.

THE RUNAWAY CREW.—Sheriff Dashiell left for Annapolis on Monday, with a requisition for the crew of the "Charles Samuel" who will be tried in this county for larceny.

Mr. Hemsley, the well known and most popular member of the firm of Penrose, Porter & Hemsley of Phila., has severed his connection with that house and is now in the employ of Messrs. Lanahan & Son of Baltimore. The enterprise and success of Mr. H are proverbial.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.—This time honored day was observed in Cambridge as usual, the mails groaning under their weight of missives, and at night merry parties of small folks passing from house to house, flinging their valentines under door sills and then scampering away. Of latter years the comic seems to have pretty much superseded the sentimental in that line In our youth, we can well remember with what beating heart and anxious anticipation we dispatched each year a lace-edged, gilt bespangled valentine to the object of our juvenile affection.

TAKE NOTICE.—We take pleasure in informing our readers that under the new regulations of the Treasury Department, postmasters have been instructed to receive mutilated currency in payment for postage stamps and stamped envelopes on the same terms it is received by the officials at the Treasury. By this means all persons having in their possession any U S. currency with not more than two fifths of its original size missing can have it redeemed as above for its full face value.

☞ Mr. Joseph K. Bramble, the proprietor of the well known hotel of that name, and the sporting community at large have met with no little loss in the death of "Ring" the king of setters in this "setting" community Whether it is that our dogs (a notoriously imitative animal is the dog) are affected by the customs of our people, who both upon principle and from the force of habit "set," all the year round, or are perfected by constant training at the hands of a large population who have nothing to do but teach them to "set" we cannot say, but the fact stands that Cambridge "setters" are famous for their qualities, and "Ring" was the best of them all.

After a sudden and severe illness he departed this life last week, aged about five years, and besides a large circle of human friends who appreciate his merits, left a numerous progeny who "if caught inanimate (so to speak) could grieve" would mourn his death.

Letter from Annapolis.

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 18th, 1872

In the Senate there has been the usual amount of business done this week, mostly of a local sort. The Bill from the Com. on Corporations giving incorporated Companies increased power was interrupted in its passage by Mr. Henry who offered a long amendment to the effect that "Nothing therein should be construed as exempting Incorporated Companies from taxation.—This is a very important amendment and no less significant.

Of the Local Bills considered and passed by the Senate are two reported by Mr. Henry from a select committee.

One of which is to amend Act 93 of the General Laws, title "Wild Fowl" by adding an additional section thereto which allows Shooting from Sink-boats on Choptank River on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays in each week.

Also, a Bill to revive, re-enact and amend the act passed in 1852 Chapter 316, providing for the appointment of a Commissioner to record Wills, and to look after and prevent all evils likely to arise from the burning of the old Court House.

In the House of Delegates the greater part of this week has been consumed in the discussion of the Bill to re-district Frederick City. The Democrats of said city want the Bill to pass, the Republicans oppose it. Many Democrats in the House think it bad policy to legislate in local politics and consequently vote with the republicans against the Bill.

Mr. Vickers has reported a Bill to amend section 92 of act 10 of the code of Public Local laws for Dorchester, which changes the dividing line between Williamsburg and New Market districts.

Mr. Radcliffe a Bill to add additional sections to act 10 of the Code of Local laws for Dorchester for the protection of Riparian Proprietors.

This Bill prohibits the hauling of seines over planted oysters and makes it a misdemeanor to haul seines to the shore of any person without obtaining a permision from the owner.

Mr. Smith has been absent this week or a part of the week on an investigation Committee in the matter of the burning of the Chesapeake and Maryland Ice Boats. The committee are still continuing their investigations. They have had some of the first merchants and gentlemen of Baltimore before them, have gained valuable information, the result of which, if nothing more will be to cause such legislation as will give better protection in the future to our Ice Boats.

He has originated two bills this week. One to pay J. C. Henry of your town for services rendered on board of Oyster Police Boat Leila.

Also an act to pay Capt. McNamara for damages to his Canoe whilst under arrest of Capt. Davidson upon charges of which he was acquitted.

Mr. Henry is at present at home on a leave of absence for a few days.

A series of Joint Resolutions have passed both Houses instructing our Senators and Representatives in Congress to use all honorable means to influence Congress to pass a law refunding the amount of money collected by the Tax on Raw Cotton during the years 1865, 66 & 67.

YOURS J. T.

[For the Cambridge Chronicle.]

Letter from E. New Market, Md.

MR. EDITOR:—Permit me the use of your columns, for the purpose of stating what we have have done towards our Temperance movement. We held a meeting sometime ago, as you are aware, for the purpose of petitioning the Legislature, for an "option liquor law," The petitions relative to this movement, to that Honorable body, have been in circulation through our district, and though the matter has not been pushed with the energy that it should have been, nevertheless we have succeeded in procuring a handsome number of signatures, composed of some of the best men of our district. The petitions have been forwarded with dispatch to our particular Representation at Annapolis, there to await his action. So you see that, that petition has gone, with all due respect to some peoples opinions notwithstanding. We the humble petitioners want this passed, and therefore turn our gaze upon our Representation, and await with almost breathless silence his action. Upon this issue hangs to-day the destiny of a political party, the destiny of a people, the destiny of families, yea the destiny of thousands of souls now, and millions yet unborn. The question has been raised, shall liquor rule us? or shall we rule liquor? Men decide this matter. The question is asked to-day in reference to our petition, "Will they do it?" "Dare they do it," as was asked on that memorable day in the history of our country, the "4th day of July 1776."—Yes they did it, those were patriots, men who had the interest of their country in their hearts: not a respective party. The firmness of those men on that day brought peace, happiness and prosperity to us as a nation, and bliss running over to the hamlets, interspersing here and there its fertile plains and rich valleys. We are earnest in this matter, and intend to succeed because we are in the right, and who dare stand up against us. Yes, we will conquer or die. But we do not intend to use the sword, but logical truths, and if this bill passes, (we see no reason why it should not, similar bills have passed, and why not ours!) We will invite the Goliah of the tribe of Alcohol, to intellectual combat from the stump or through the press. The passage of this act will not increase the expenses of our state but lessen them.—Some say, take away the revenue derived from L. Licenses and it, will increase our taxes, better far wipe out those stains of blood, misery and tax imposed by those assault and battery cases, of which liquor is the chief instigator,—compare the revenue with the expenditure please, and you will be convinced at once. We are not asking too much from our Legislature—therefore we are looking, expecting, yea believing that the bill will pass. We'll hail the day and let you hear from us more elaborately from the stump.

MANHOOD:
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED,

JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of certain weaknesses, the effects of Errors and Abuses in early life.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of such errors and abuses may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, & effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
