ACCIDENT.—A valuable horse belonging to John S. Vincent broke his leg on Sunday last.

LAND SALE.—Robert W. Randall of New York has purchased the "Leah Smith" farm in East New Market District for $2400.

RESIGNED.—The Rev. J. M McCarter on Saturday last returned his credentials to the conference at Laurel, and resigned all his ministerial relations with the M. E. Church.

DEDICATION.—The new M. P. Church, of Salisbury, was dedicated last Sunday morning, Dr. Bates officiating.—The collection made on the occasion reached $1,600, which liquidates the indebtedness of the church.

NEW SAW MILL.—It is rumored that certain parties from the North who purchased the timber on the land of A. J. Mobray Esq., are about to purchase the mill of Caleb Shepherd in Cambridge and establish an extensive saw mill on the premises.

AMUSEMENTS.—The La Poer Brothers performed their almost magic feats of legerdemain in Hayward Hall on Friday and Saturday evening's before crowded houses, and with great applause. They have made a very favorable impression on our community, and we bespeak for them a favorable reception in our sister counties.

THE KIND OF SHEEP OUR PASTURES RAISE.—Last week a ewe, the property of Jas. N. Dawson Esq., gave birth to 4 lambs, all perfect and hearty, and they are now frisking about with the sprightliness proverbial to their race. Judge Sam. Pattison's flock of 9 ewes has within the last two weeks brought forth 22 lambs, all of whom are in a flourishing condition

DR. WM. R HAYWARD.—This popular and efficient officer, originally appointed to the office of Land Commissioner by Gov. Bowie, has been re-appointed by Gov. Whyte. It is a signal tribute to the successful administration of Dr H. that his continuance in office was almost unanimously supported by the entire legal profession of Maryland, (the class most particularly interested in the proper discharge of the duties of the place,) and is renewed evidence of that high toned and penetrating discrimination of our present Executive upon which we have already had occasion to remark. Much has been hoped of the talents, and integrity and general high reputation of Mr. Whyte, and we have reason to think that the people will not be disappointed. We feel absolutely certain that even if the Legislature should be so derelict to its duty to the people as to sanction the unjust and corrupt bill that has been introduced to exempt the Balt & Ohio Rail Road from taxation, thereby throwing additional burdens upon the landed interest of the State, we feel a conviction, we say, that the bill will be vetoed by such a Governor as we now have at the helm of State It would crown him in the affections of the people, nineteen twentieths of whom both from principle and interest are opposed to so iniquitous a measure.

THE LEGISLATURE.—During the past week the following bills and petitions affecting local interests in Dorchester County have been introduced by our representatives at Annapolis.

By Dr Smith—To fix a standard for the measurement of oysters in the shell in the city of Baltimore and Crisfield, in Somerset County.

By Mr. Henry, the petition of 260 citizens of Dorchester county asking for protection of the fishing interests of Dorchester, Talbot and Caroline Counties.

By Dr. Smith, to regulate the taking of oysters with scoops in Fishing Bay and Honga River.

By Mr. Radcliff, for the better protection of fish in Dorchester county.

By Mr. Vickers, petition for a local option temperance law in East New Market District.

By Dr. Smith, petition of Henry Woodland and other citizens, asking for an act to authorize the County Commissioners of Dorchester County to build a bridge over Fishing Creek at Fishing Creek Ferry.

The bill to increase the per diem of witnesses to $1.50 has been amended so as to apply only to counties. Harford and St. Mary's are exempted

A bill has been reported to allow parties to contract for any rate of interest upon money loans, leaving the interest at six per cent in the absence of contract.

March is usually represented as a blustering time. Not so with all it brings forth. For instance DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA, although anything but quiet, has no bluster. It is all solid, sound, useful and entertaining in its contents, just the thing for indoor amusement for the season. Get a copy for Ten Cents, at a Book Store, or subscribe for a year, for your Boys and Girls. Only $1, with a premium.—Published at 838 Broadway.

Book Notices.

Will. M. Carleton's Great Poem.

The finest poem yet written by that young and brilliant genius, WILL. M. CARLETON, is "THE BURNING OF CHICAGO," written for and just published in "OUR FIRESIDE FRIEND," the new and attractive literary and family journal, published by WATERS, EBERTS & Co., 783 State Street, Chicago.

The poem is in Mr. Carleton's best vein; beautiful in thought, grand in conception, graphic in expression, and sustained throughout. The enterprising publishers were fortunate in securing this contribution from the author. In this connection we may say that the new paper will doubtless speedily become a prime favorite with the masses of the reading public. It is an eight page, illustrated, literary and family weekly, containing a large amount of interesting and useful reading matter. The publishers are evidently determined to make a first class paper, and secure for it a very large circulation.—They intend to give to their subscribers for 1872, One hundred thousand dollars in premiums, to be distributed upon a new and novel plan. Specimen copies of the paper, together with full particulars, sent free on application.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR MARCH, 1872.—The following are the embellishments that will be found in the March number:

The steel plate—"Cinderella"—is the best this year.

Miss Lolipop is having a reception. Distinguished ladies and gentlemen are crowding the rooms, glad of the honor.

Colored fashion-plate, containing a dinner dress, walking dress, reception dress, evening dress, and house dress. Also a pretty dress for a child.

A seasonable wood-cut—"Gathering Easter Eggs"—which will be appreciated by the juveniles.

The Etruscan Slipper, printed in colors, is a good design, and will be found easy of execution.

Nothing better in the display of fashions can be found in any magazine this month than Godey gives in his colored fashion-plate and extension sheet.—Seventeen different styles are given. Besides the dresses, there are twenty-three designs of miscellaneous articles given—collars, basques, etc. etc.

Numerous designs for fancy work are also given in the work department.

This valuable Magazine will be furnished with the Chronicle at $2.25.

DEMOREST'S MAGAZINE for March comes to us fresh from the fountain-head of fashion. Its publishers seem to be never failing in their efforts to make it the model Magazine of America, and have always attained their point. Notwithstanding the many attractions in the magazine itself, making it worth double the subscription price, they are now offering the beautiful oil chromo "Isn't She Pretty," worth $8—or "The Pet's Music Lesson," a new and beautiful oil chromo, also worth $8—to every yearly subscriber, at $3, giving $11 in value for $3 in cash. Address,

W. JENNINGS DEMOREST,
838 Broadway.

BRAINARD'S MUSICAL WORLD for March is just received, and is an unusually attractive number. It contains a very choice selection of miscellaneous musical reading from "grave to gay, from lively to severe;" a pleasing story, "Appassionato," and a number of well-written, pointed editorials The record of "music at home and abroad" is quite full and interesting, while the personal notes, notices of new sheet music publications, and general musical notes, are just what will interest every one.

The music in this number is "Mother and I have been waiting," a Temperance song and chorus; "Silvery Ripples Schottische;" and "Bessie's Favorite," a pleasing little rondo for the piano.

$1.00 a year.

Published at the Great Central Musical Publishing House of S. Brainard's Sons, Cleveland, O.

MANHOOD:
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED,

JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of certain weaknesses, the effects of Errors and Abuses in early life.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of such errors and abuses may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, & effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
