Ladies' Academy,

Corner of Church-street and St. Paul's-lane.

MR. and Mrs. O'REILLY, principals of the academy, grateful for the encouragement they met with in this city, and anxious to merit the continued approbation of the public, have limited their pupils to the number they themselves can instruct. They are determined to employ no assistant teachers, knowing from experience, that the education of youth is very much retarded and injured by bad accent and false pronunciation, received from vulgar teachers. Mr. O'Reilly will teach the different classes in the English language, with a true accent, right pronunciation and emphasis, English grammar and composition, writing and arithmetic, history and geography, globes and astronomy, &c. Mrs. O'Reilly will teach the French and Italian languages, piano forte, drawing, and all kinds of work, viz. embroidery in chenilles, gold, silver, silks, &c. comprising figures, historical and ornamental, landscapes, flowers, fruit, birds, &c. maps wrought in silks, chenilles, gold, &c. print work in figures or landscapes; cloth work in fruit, birds, flowers, &c. filagree and varnishing in vases, pyramids, baskets, tea cadies, epergnes, &c. grotto and shell work, artificial flowers, tambor and Dresden, cross stitch, tent stitch, tapestry, &c. bugle and pearl work, painting on velvet, gauze, silk, vellum, &c. with many other accomplishments too numerous to mention.

Six pupils can be accommodated with boarding. The situation is superior to any in the city.
