DEMOCRAT

WILL cover mares from this day until the first of July next, at the subscriber's farm, near Mr. Baldwin's tavern, Prince George's county, at Sixteen Dollars each, and one for the groom—the money to be paid at the time of covering, or before the mares are taken away.

Democrat will be six years old in May next—his form and blood is greatly admired by the best of judges—his performances on the turf have been pleasing to all who have not been interested against him, winning several matches, sweepstakes, jockey clubs and subscription purses.

Any gentleman sending mares to Democrat before grass becomes plenty, can be accommodated with grain at market prices. Pasturage can be had, when grass becomes plenty, at 2s 6d. per week, but not liable for accidents or escapes—every attention will be paid to prevent either.

ISAAC DUCKETT.

Mr. Isaac Duckett's bay horse Democrat, was bred by me, got by col. Taylor's grey horse Diomed; his dam by Mr. Hall's imported horse Eclipse, grandam by Don Carlos, who was got by Dr. Hamilton's imported horse Figure, out of his famous running mare Primrose; great grandam by Dr. Hamilton's imported horse Ranger, who was got by Martindale's Regulus—Regulus was got by the Godolphin Arabian; his great great grandam by Dr. Hamilton's imported horse Dove, who was also got by the Godolphin Arabian; his great great great grandam by Othello, out of col. Tasker's Old Selima, and full sister to M Wm. Brent's and Mr. Samuel Galloway's Old Selima.

I certify the above to be a true pedigree.

The Subscriber offers for Sale,

The following desirable REAL PROPERTY, on reasonable terms and accommodating credit, viz.

A three-story brick Warehouse and Lot, situate on Pratt-street, adjoining the store of Mr. William Livesay, and directly opposite the new tobacco inspection. The lot is 25 feet front by 80 feet deep; the brick warehouse covers the front, and running back feet to a good two-story frame warehouse—the whole subject to 12*l.* sterling per annum ground rent

A beautiful Country Seat, formerly the property and residence of doctor Moore Falls, about two miles from the city, on the road leading to the Windsor mills, containing 52 acres, of which 45½ are in one body, all under good fence, the remaining 6¾ being on the opposite side of the road, adjoining the seat of Job Smith, esquire. On the first lot is erected an elegant and almost new and well-finished two-story white frame house, 42 feet front, three rooms below, with a passage; a large and commodious kitchen, two stair cases; a large cellar; two piazzas, a neat one to the front house, the other to the back building; four lodging rooms above exclusive of the garret, which is plaistered, with partitions for store room and servants' lodging; a dairy; an excellent pump and well of never less than 9 feet good water; an ice house, gardener's house, and a large stable for cows & horses, with a spacious loft; an excellent garden of 1½ acre, inclosed by paling. Of this land 14 acres are good meadow, watered by a run passing below the lot, three patches of excellent clover in good order, an exclusive collection of every kind of good fruit trees, such as pears, apples, plumbs, cherries and peaches, and shrubs of all sorts. The situation is really romantic, extremely pleasing and remarkably healthy. The man who takes care of it has, with his family, (which is numerous) lived upon it these two years—and for further testimony of its salubrity, reference may be had to Messrs. John H. Frisse, Archibald Stewart, and John H. Behn, whose families have respectively occupied the premises. The 45½ acres, with the improvements thereon, may be had separately. The man having care of the place, will at any time shew the same to any person desirous to purchase.

A Lot of 39 acres, (part of an estate called Stock Hill) 26 of which may be made excellent meadow at a small expence, lying on the north side of the Philadelphia road, within two miles of this city, and about 300 yards to the westward of the road leading to the seat of David Harris, esquire: 13 acres of it are heavily timbered, capable of yielding 7 or 800 cords of wood. There is on it a new frame house, occupied by Mr. John Sap, tenant, who will shew the whole premises.

Such of the foregoing property as may not be disposed of at private sale by Tuesday the 12th of April next, will on that day be offered at auction, at Messrs. Van Wyck and Dorsey's vendue store, at half past 11 o'clock.
