ſtance of the converſation that paſſed between Bonaparte and lord Whitworth, on Sunday laſt; the menacing looks, the agitated manner, the angry tone of the former--the cool dignity, the firmneſs and the moderation of the latter. That our readers may not imagine we procured this information from a ſource not perfectly authentic, we think it neceſſary to ſtate here in the moſt diſtinct manner, That THAT intelligence reſts upon the ſtrongeſt foundation, and that it is ACCURATE in EVERY part. We are enabled to make this aſſertion, by letters from two Engliſh gentlemen who were preſent at the audience on Sunday, who heard the converſation, and watched the looks and geſtures of the firſt conſul.

As he retired from the audience chamber, he invoked, in a loud tone of voice, the vengeance of God on that power which ſhould be the cauſe of the war; and having uttered theſe words, he burſt with the greateſt rage through the folding doors of the chamber, before one of his pages could open them for him.

It appears from all the accounts that have been received from Paris, that Bonaparte was by no means prepared to expect ſuch vigorous preparations on our part. As ſoon as the meſſage arrived, a council of ſtate was called, which ſat from 7 in the morning till 11 at night. Couriers were immediately diſpatched to Vienna, Berlin, Peterſburg and Italy.

We have already ſaid, that we ſuſpect Bonaparte will do every thing in his power to procraſtinate. Our miniſters, however, we are glad to hear, are determined not to permit a lingering negociation. The following obſervations in a paper connected with them, coincide with thoſe which we expreſſed in our paper on Thurſday:—"There is one event with reſpect to which his majeſty's miniſters, we have no doubt, will provide as far as ſuch an occurrence can be provided againſt, by ſtipulation and agreement—they will not ſuffer the preſent criſis to paſs without coming to ſome preciſe and ſpecific ſettlement, upon all the objects now under diſcuſſion—and they are fully aware that nothing would be ſo diſadvantageous to the nation as to permit the preſent negociation to be ſpun out, and the objects of diſpute patched up, for the preſent. If any ſuch attempt ſhould be made we are ſatisfied they are fully determined to reſiſt it. Having armed, they will not diſarm, without placing every point under diſcuſſion in a ſatisfactory ſtate.

"We heartily wiſh we could truſt as implicitly to the diſpoſition of the firſt conſul, as we are ſure we may to that of his majeſty's miniſters—That without recurring to cauſes of diſcontent and diſquietude, which may have taken place ſince the treaty of Amiens, without having recourſe to mutual reproaches, circumſtances may admit of conciliation, and that we may be permitted to look with confidence for the future—but if an inordinate ambition induces the chief conſul of France to an- [illegible] inually new territories to the republic, [illegible] his [illegible] s to projects repugnant to inter [illegible] treaties may be ſigned, but [illegible] s will exiſt, incompatible with the true [illegible] peace."

[illegible] ernment, we have been informed [illegible] orning, expect to receive a definitive [illegible] from Bonaparte to-night. Their [illegible] tum was diſpatched on Tueſday laſt, [illegible] we underſtand, an immediate reply [illegible] emanded, they are in expectation of [illegible] ches to-night or to-morrow morning, [illegible] will decide the queſtion of peace or [illegible]

[illegible] ould war be declared, government of [illegible] e will not let a French ſhip come out [illegible] y of the French ports.

REFLECTIONS.

It is now evident from the reſult of the election that federaliſm has rapidly gained ground in this city. The laſt year the federal republicans did not offer a ticket at all; the year before, thoſe calling themſelves republicans carried the election by a great majority; but this year, after numerous arts and ſtrenuous exertions, their number appears to be greatly diminiſhed, and they have hardly obtained ſucceſs. Few inſtances have ever occurred of an adminiſtration ſinking, in ſo ſhort a time into ſo much diſrepute. It is thought, that had it not been for the inactivity of the federaliſts--the rod which Cheetham brandiſhed over the heads of the Burrites, cowing them into the meaſures of the Clintonians--and a wonderful certificate which he ſhowed in corners, and by lamp-light--the election would have gone in favor of the federaliſts. The majority which Mr. Benſon had, is a proof of the general ſentiment, and that good ſenſe and virtue prevail over the intereſted and ambitious views of the reigning families.

Thoſe Burrites who ventured to grumble under the diſcipline exerciſed towards them, and upon whoſe ſhoulders the Clintonians have got aſtride once more, Cheetham, it is expected will take new meaſures. At the command of his employers, he allowed them to breathe for a day or two, and to put them on their good behavior, but is preparing for them freſh tortures, until there does not remain one refractory creature belonging to the "little band."

CHARLESTON, April 18:

In the ſchr. Sally, capt. Haley, from Turk's Iſland, came paſſengers, capt. H. Hoffmin, with ſeveral officers and part of the crew of the Dutch 54 gun ſhip Sibella Antoinetta, which veſſel was loſt on Mayauguana, on the 17th ult. on her paſſage from Cape-Francois to Amſterdam.

Captain Reynolds, from Port Republic, informs, that 6000 French troops arrived there about the 26th ult.

Accounts from Bordeaux ſtate, that the number of troops deſtined for St. Domingo, a part of which had ſailed, would amount to upwards of 30,000 men.

We have French papers to the 2d of March; but obſerve no mention of the troops deſtined for Louiſiana.

Late intelligence from the Havanna, ſtates, that the Spaniſh government had expreſsly forbidden the exportation of ſpecie from that port.

An unfortunate accident occurred yeſterday, upon Cooper river. Mr. Thomas Dewees, eldeſt ſon of Mr. Wm. Dewees, factor, in company with ſome other young men, were out on a party of pleaſure; and in returning, the boat was upſet by a ſlaw of wind off Town-Creek---Mr. A. Howard and Mr. Dewees, attempted to ſwim aſhore: the former, nearly exhauſted, ſucceeded; the latter ſunk, within a few yards of the ſhore, and roſe no more. The reſt of the perſons who were in the boat, got upon her bottom, and were taken off, by a boat paſſing by.

A ſmall ſailing boat was alſo upſet off Fort Pinckney; ſhe immediately filled and ſunk. The captain of a ſchooner, (Geyer) and his wife, with three ſailors, were in the boat; but were fortunately picked up by ſome fiſhermen, who were near at hand. It is ſtated that Mrs. Geyer's cloathes buoying her up, ſhe by her fortitude and preſence of mind, ſaved the life of her huſband, who could not ſwim; and graſping him by the ſhoulders, bore him above the ſurface of the water, until aſſiſtance arrived.

The honorable U. Tracy, one of the ſenators of the United States, from Connecticut, arrived in this city laſt Friday.

Extract of a letter from captain Bragdon, of the Riſing States, dated Cowes, ſecond March.

"On my paſſage to this port, I took up a negro 150 miles eaſt of Charleſton, in an open boat; had been 13 days at ſea, and was then without victuals and drink. His name is Moody, the property of Mr. Cooper of St. Simons, from which place he was blown out to ſea.

VALUABLE MEDICINES.

The Public are reſpectfully informed that LEE and CO. and the agents of their appointment, will in future keep a conſtant ſupply of the following Medicines, which are in high eſteem and general uſe throughout the United States, many of them being ſold cheaper than the drugs of which they are compounded, could be purchaſed at a retail ſtore

TAKE NOTICE, that Meſſrs. WARNER and HANNA, bookſellers, corner of Market and ſouth Gay-ſtreet, are appointed the only agents for this city; and that the genuine medicines can be had no where elſe in Baltimore.

☞ A freſh ſupply is this day received of

Hamilton's celebrated ELIXIR,

A ſovereign remedy for colds, obſtinate coughs, aſthmas, ſore throats, and approaching conſumptions.

To parents who may have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH,

This diſcovery is of the firſt magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progreſs, and in a ſhort time entirely removes the moſt cruel diſorders to which children are liable—the Elixir is ſo perfectly agreeable, and the doſe ſo ſmall that no difficulty ariſes in taking it.

Mr. Charles Myers, Hampſtead Hill, near Baltimore, had been a long time dangerouſly indiſpoſed, and was reduced to the loweſt ſtate of weakneſs, inſomuch that his recovery appeared doubtful. His complaints, which ſeemed to be affections of the breaſt and lungs, and general debility occaſioned thereby, yielded little, but rather progreſſed under the treatment of ſeveral eminent phyſicians; when by the uſe of Hamilton's Elixir, his diſtreſſing cough was immediately alleviated, and every other ſymptom rapidly ſubdued. Four or five bottles entirely removed his complaints, and reſtored him to an excellent ſtate of health and ſtrength, which he has for upwards of two years paſt enjoyed without interruption.

From LUTHER MARTIN, Eſquire, Attorney General of the State of Maryland.

GENTLEMEN,

I comply with your requeſt in ſtating my opinion of Hamilton's Elixir—It has been uſed in my family for two or three years paſt, with uniform ſucceſs, whenever colds, coughs, or ſimilar complaints have renderrd medicine neceſſary—I have myſelf found it an excellent and agreeable remedy for a very painful and troubleſome affection of the breaſt, accompanied with ſoreneſs and with obſtructed and difficult breathing.

On theſe accounts I do not heſitate to recommend Hamilton's Elixir, as a valuable medicine, and deſerving public attention

LUTHER MARTIN.

Mr. Abijah Henly, Bridge-ſtreet, Baltimore, was cured by one bottle of Hamilton's Elixir, of a very complicated diſorder, occaſioned by a ſevere cold caught ſeveral months ago—He breathed with the greateſt difficulty, and was often thrown into weakening ſweats when he attempted to walk any diſtance, and his voice would frequently fail in ſuch a degree that he could only attempt to whiſper; he has been upwards of ſix weeks without a return of his complaints, and deſires to give his public teſtimony in favor of this invaluable medicine.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, ſouth Howard-ſtreet, was greatly relieved of an aſthmatic complaint of ſeveral years ſtanding, by the firſt bottle of Hamilton's Elixir—and by the uſe of five bottles ſhe has acquired a degree of eaſe and ſtrength to which ſhe had been long a ſtranger. She had taken balſam of honey, Church's cough drops, and other medicines without any benefit, and ſometimes to the evident injury of her breathing.

INFALLIBLE AGUE and FEVER DROPS,

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers. Thouſands can teſtify of their being cured by theſe drops, after the bark and every other medicine has proved ineffectual; and not one in a hundred has had occaſion to take more than one, and numbers not half a bottle.

THE GENUINE PERSIAN LOTION,

So celebrated among the faſhionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable coſmetic, perfectly innocent and ſafe, free from corroſive and repellent minerals (the baſis of other lotion) and of unparalleled efficacy in preventing and removing blemiſhes in the face and ſkin of every kind, particularly freckles, pimples, ſcurfs, tetters, ringworms, ſun-burns, &c. rendering the ſkin delicately ſoft and clear, improving the complexion, and reſtoring the bloom of youth.

CURES.

Card from Miſs L— R—, daughter of colonel R—

Miſs R. requeſts Meſſrs. Lee and Co. to ſend her two bottles of the Perſian Lotion by this packet—the bottle ſhe before purchaſed has been very uſeful in removing an unpleaſant eruption and inflammation of the face—ſhe will recommend it as it merits.

Mr. P. B. in the neighborhood of Annapolis, was cured by one bottle of the Perſian Lotion, of a very alarming tattering eruption of ſeveral months continuance; Gowland's lotion, as well as ſome American preparation had firſt been tried without any good effects.

A young ſon of Mr. Ebenezer Hindman, Bond-ſtreet, Fell's-Point, was cured by the Perſian Lotion of a dangerous and inveterate ring-worm, which ſpread rapidly on his left arm and hand—this excellent preparation immediately ſtopped its progreſs, and in a ſhort time no remains of it were ſeen: two or three gentle laxatives were adviſed during its uſe

RESTORATIVE POWDER for the TEETH and GUMS.

This excellent preparation comforts & ſtrengthens the gums, preſerves the enamel from decay, and cleanſes and whitens the teeth, abſorbing all thoſe acrimonious ſlime and foulneſs, which ſuffered to accumulate, never fails to injure, and finally ruins them.

THE DAMASK LIP SALVE,

Is recommended (particularly to the ladies) as an elegant and pleaſant preparation for chopped and ſore lips, and every blemiſh and inconvenience occaſioned by colds, fevers, &c. ſpeedily reſtoring a beautiful roſy color and delicate ſoftneſs to the lips.

Gowland's Lotion, Anderſon's Pills, Hooper's Pills, Godfrey's Cordial, Haarlem Oil, Eſſence of Peppermint, Steer's Oppodeldoch, Church's Cough, &c. Drops,
