Distressing!
STOLEN away on Sunday morning last, from my dwelling house in New Church Street, a NEGRO CHILD named MARY. She is about three years old, and speaks but imperfectly; has no perceptible mark, except that of inoculation, which is discernable upon the left leg; she had on a striped gingham slip. There is great reason to suspect a certain negro man of this city, for being a party in this transaction, and that the child through the connivance of those, (who are not utter stranges to such things) is now secreted some where in this city.
I will give ten dollars to any person who will discover the child and return it, and twenty dollars to any person who will apprehend and prosecute to conviction those concerned in the theft.
W. Y. LEWIS.
July 11. d4t

Fifty Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, living at Popis creek, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on the 19th instant, a negro man named FRANK, by trade a blacksmith, of a tawny complexion, long visage, and remarkably fine soft voice; about 45 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, straight limbed. Frank generally wore a long tailed coat, but it is not known certainly what clothes he took with him: he may easily be detected, as he has taken with him one of his youngest sons named John, who is not more than 9 years of age, and is of a very black complexion, and long visage like his father. I am induced to think Frank has made for some of the large towns, particularly Alexandria or Baltimore, in the former of which, or its neighborhood, he has a free brother, by the name of Rogers, who did live near Dr. Smith's, upon Ravensworth, in the county of Fairfax. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure said Frank, with his son, and give information thereof to the subscriber; and 100 dollars if taken out of the state, and the money paid as soon as I get him.
