WE the undersigned, assignees of the estate and effects of DAVID GEDDES, late of the city of Baltimore, merchant, a bankrupt—do hereby certify, that on a full and minute investigation of the affairs of the said David Geddes, we have every reason to believe that his conduct has been that of a strictly honest man; and that his incapacity to discharge his debts in full, has arisen entirely from the failures of others and losses in trade, and not through any impropriety of conduct in him: And we further certify, that we found the said David Geddes's books fairly and correctly kept, and that we received every assistance from him in closing his affairs, whereby we have been able to declare a first dividend of 40 per cent.

We therefore grant this certificate to the said David Geddes, as a public testimony of our approbation of his conduct.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living at Popis creek, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on the 19th instant, a negro man named FRANK, by trade a blacksmith, of a tawny complexion, long visage, and remarkably fine soft voice; about 45 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, straight limbed. Frank generally wore a long tailed coat, but it is not known certainly what clothes he took with him: he may easily be detected, as he has taken with him one of his youngest sons named John, who is not more than 9 years of age, and is of a very black complexion, and long visage like his father. I am induced to think Frank has made for some of the large towns, particularly Alexandria or Baltimore, in the former of which, or its neighborhood, he has a free brother, by the name of Rogers, who did live near Dr. Smith's, upon Ravensworth, in the county of Fairfax. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure said Frank, with his son, and give information thereof to the subscriber; and 100 dollars if taken out of the state, and the money paid as soon as I get him.
