The Subscriber

BEING on the point of closing his trust as supervisor of the revenue of the United States, for the district of Maryland, and finding it necessary to enter, without delay, upon some new occupation—gives notice, that he has obtained from the proper authority, an appointment as NOTARY PUBLIC for the state of Maryland, to reside at the city of Baltimore; and that he has this day opened an office in that capacity, at the north-west corner of Gay and Water-streets, formerly occupied for the custom house. He presents himself, therefore, respectfully to the merchants and traders, the directors of public institutions, and the citizens in general of Baltimore, to the consuls and agents of foreign countries residing in the said city, and to Americans and others trading thereto from abroad—not advancing superior pretensions to a business, which he knows to be already in very able hands; but making an humble tender of his service, and promising to execute with care, fidelity and dispatch, the commands of those who may favor him with employment. He may be permitted, however, to express his belief that a course of twenty years public service in active and important stations of civil government, and particularly the arduous employment from which he is now retiring, cannot but have qualified him for a satisfactory discharge of the duties he is about to undertake. Translations from, and business in general in, the French language, the acquirement of which formed a part of the subscriber's early education, will be executed by himself: For other languages competent persons will be employed, by the public's respectful and obedient servant, JOHN KILTY.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living at Popis creek, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on the 19th instant, a negro man named FRANK, by trade a blacksmith, of a tawny complexion, long visage, and remarkably fine soft voice; about 45 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, straight limbed. Frank generally wore a long tailed coat, but it is not known certainly what clothes he took with him: he may easily be detected, as he has taken with him one of his youngest sons named John, who is not more than 9 years of age, and is of a very black complexion, and long visage like his father. I am induced to think Frank has made for some of the large towns, particularly Alexandria or Baltimore, in the former of which, or its neighborhood, he has a free brother, by the name of Rogers, who did live near Dr. Smith's, upon Ravensworth, in the county of Fairfax. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure said Frank, with his son, and give information thereof to the subscriber; and 100 dollars if taken out of the state, and the money paid as soon as I get him.

The Subscriber

Offers the following VALUABLE PROPERTY for sale, or will barter for property in or near the city of Baltimore:

One two-story brick House and large lot, near the public square in Hager's-town, well finished, with the necessary out buildings and a good garden.

One frame two-story House adjoining the former, and on a 12 feet alley.

One one-story log House, together with one lot and an half of ground on one of the back streets; also, one other lot, unimproved.

307 acres of Land lying in Washington county, about three miles from Potomak river; on this tract of land are two tenements, and about eighty acres of clear land under good fence, and some valuable meadow ready made, would suit well for a stock farm, having a very extensive range.

58 acres of Land lying in same county, about four miles from Hancock-town, well timbered, with some good meadow; also, 36 acres nearly adjoining the aforesaid tract, well timbered.

Two tracts of Land lying in Prince George's county, containing 70 acres, nearly opposite to Alexandria, and within three miles of the Federal city; one of which tracts is improved, the other in woods.

One tract lying in Fayette county, state of Pennsylvania, about one mile from Union or Beeson-town (the county town); on this tract are good improvements, viz. a house, stables and barn newly finished, and a large garden well fenced in; there are about 80 acres clear land, the rest of the track abounds with valuable timber, and contains 145 acres. There are also on the premises a valuable mine of stone coal, and easy to come at, not being more than three feet under the surface, also a valuable quarry of stone.

1000 acres of first-rate Land, upon the waters of Middle Island, and about one mile and an half from the Ohio river, unimproved.

400 acres about four miles from the former, well improved.

364 acres adjoining the above, well improved.

1000 acres adjoining the above, well improved.

400 acres adjoining the above, unimproved.

450 acres adjoining Gregg's mill, on Middle Island, well timbered.

349 acres adjoining the above, well improved.

1000 acres in Fayette county, state of Kentucky, on the North Fork of Licking, 8 miles from the town of Washington, well wooded and watered.

The above lands, lying on the western waters, are an object to any person who wishes to reside there, the soil being so rich that from 80 to 100 bushels of corn have been produced from an acre; besides they abound with the finest timber for ship building, &c. which has become an object; and as they were taken up and patented many years ago, the titles are clear of all disputes. Any person wishing to get farther information respecting them, will apply to captain John Lee, residing in the town of Wheeling.
