100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Sunday, the 24th ultimo, a negro man by the name of LIGE, or Elijah: he is of the middle stature, and well made, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, and supposed to be between twenty-three and twenty-four years old; has short wool and round face; a few pits of the small pox on the side of his nose, and about his face, and a scar on some part of his face: had on and took with him, a pair of white dimity trousers, blue cloth jacket, a pair of coarse shoes, and some other clothing not recollected. It is supposed he has taken passage in a sloop for Norfolk, and that he will make for a Mr. Edward Cooper, sail-makea, in that town. As he is well acquainted with the Chesapeake bay, and also with working a vessel, it is very probable he may apply for a birth in some vessel bound to sea. He was raised on Fell's-Point by a Mr. Cooper; and it is said he has a pass bearing the county seal. I will give the above reward if bro't home.

THOMAS RAVEN,
No. 51, Alisanna-street, Fell's-Point.

N. B. Masters of vessels and others are warned not to harbor or carry off said run-away, at their peril.

August 1. d3t‖

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living at Popis creek, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, on the 19th instant, a negro man named FRANK, by trade a blacksmith, of a tawny complexion, long visage, and remarkably fine soft voice; about 45 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, straight limbed. Frank generally wore a long tailed coat, but it is not known certainly what clothes he took with him: he may easily be detected, as he has taken with him one of his youngest sons named John, who is not more than 9 years of age, and is of a very black complexion, and long visage like his father. I am induced to think Frank has made for some of the large towns, particularly Alexandria or Baltimore, in the former of which, or its neighborhood, he has a free brother, by the name of Rogers, who did live near Dr. Smith's, upon Ravensworth, in the county of Fairfax. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure said Frank, with his son, and give information thereof to the subscriber; and 100 dollars if taken out of the state, and the money paid as soon as I get him.

Stop the Villain!

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

BROKE out of Annapolis jail, on the 27th of last month, having been committed for an attempt at murder, a mulatto man, who calls himself RICHARD WATERS; 25 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, light made and rather bow-legged, has a thin visage, is a saucy pert looking fellow, and appears rather sly when spoken to. I expect he will make for the city of Baltimore, as he has a wife and acquaintances there. Being pursued eight miles below the ferry, he lost his clothes, and had on only a shirt and trousers. His hands are remarkably ruff—the first joints of his fingers bent in. He was raised by Joshua Dause, of Elk-ridge, in whose neighborhood he attempted the crime: it is not probable he is gone that course.—I will give thirty dollars if delivered to the above jail, or secured so that I get him, or the above reward if out of the state. As he is an artful villain, he may get clothes and a pass, and try to pass for a free man.

ELI HEWITT.

N. B. I forewarn all captains and masters of vessels from harboring or taking off said fellow at their peril.

☞ Letters of information directed to the post-office, Baltimore, will be attended to.
