Young Ladies' Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. BACONAIS,

RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of Baltimore and its vicinity, that they propose opening an Academy, upon an extensive scale, for the most liberal education of Young Ladies, comprising, besides the usual & indispensible female accomplishments, such as sewing and embrodery of all kinds, &c. the grammatical and ornamental parts of English and French idioms, geography and the use of the globes, writing, arithmetic, &c. &c The pupils will have a constant opportunity of speaking the French language, all the members of said academy (except the English tutor) to the number of four or five, being French natives, whom a residence of above ten years in this country has accustomed to its language and manners, some of them even having received their education in the well known and approved academy formerly kept under Mrs. Lacombe's direction, where they have had an opportunity both of contracting an acquaintance with several of the most respectable families in this city, and familiarising themselves with the rules and discipline of a regular education.

Mr. Baconais, the head of the institution, will undertake to teach Drawing and Dancing to such of his fair pupils only, as may have a wish to learn these handsome accomplishments, a task to which a successful practice of several years in Philadelphia, has proved him, as he thinks, fully adequate. As for the literary part of his system, he feels encouraged to undertake it with the more confidence, as the liberal education his birth and former means have enabled him to receive in the most distinguished seminary of Paris, must have qualified him for the teaching of any of the useful branches to which female instruction must necessarily be confined.

Mr Baconais has made choice of the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Lacombe and Petit, near the French seminary, one of the most eligible situations in point of salubrity, and now happily secured against the inconveniences it lay under by the street not being then paved.

The academy will be ready, and is intended to be opened for the reception of scholars, on the first day of October. The parents who may be inclined to encourage this new institution, are desired to be early in their applications—which will be received by the Rev. Wm. Du Bourg, president of the French college, who will give further information respecting the terms and other particulars.

Mill Seats for Sale.

THE governor and directors of the Susquehanna canal have caused to be surveyed and laid off sundry lots for mill seats, and other water works, on the said canal, at the Conawingo, having a fall of sixteen feet to each mill seat; other lots at the Octoraro, having a fall of twenty feet to each; and other lots at the Locks, on tide water, having a fall of twenty-three feet to each—which they now offer for sale at encouraging prices to those who will improve the same. Mr. Jennie, the company's agent, residing at Octoraro, will shew the property to any person inclining to purchase; and a plat of the canal and of the aforesaid lots may be seen, and the terms of sale made known by applying to Samuel Sterett, at the corner of Gay and Water-streets, in the city of Baltimore.

It is presumed that no part of this country can offer more advantageous situations for Mill Seats and Water Works of every description, as there is an immediate intercourse by water from each lot with the back counties of New-York and Pennsylvania, and the city of Baltimore, which will be daily encreasing, and in a short time will be extended to the city of Philadelphia.
