Mill Seats for Sale.

THE governor and directors of the Suſquehanna canal have cauſed to be ſurveyed and laid off ſundry lots for mill ſeats, and other water works, on the ſaid canal, at the Conawingo, having a fall of ſixteen feet to each mill ſeat; other lots at the Octoraro, having a fall of twenty feet to each; and other lots at the Locks, on tide water, having a fall of twenty-three feet to each—which they now offer for ſale at encouraging prices to thoſe who will improve the ſame. Mr. Jennie, the company's agent, reſiding at Octoraro, will ſhew the property to any perſon inclining to purchaſe; and a plat of the canal and of the aforeſaid lots may be ſeen, and the terms of ſale made known by applying to Samuel Sterett, at the corner of Gay and Water-ſtreets, in the city of Baltimore.

It is preſumed that no part of this country can offer more advantageous ſituations for Mill Seats and Water Works of every deſcription, as there is an immediate intercourſe by water from each lot with the back counties of New-York and Pennſylvania, and the city of Baltimore, which will be daily encreaſing, and in a ſhort time will be extended to the city of Philadelphia.

RAN away from my country ſeat, near the city of Baltimore, on Sunday, the 2d inſtant, a dark mulatto man, named MOSES, formerly hoſtler at Baily's livery ſtables, afterwards at Evans's ſtables, and laſtly at Coleby's ſtables; he is twenty years of age; about five feet ten inches high; ſlender made, and has a remarkable twiſt with his mouth at particular times; he had on, when he went away, a brown mixt broadcloth ſhort coat, with round-topt metal buttons; white waiſtcoat; pantaloons of the ſame cloth of his coat, with a pair of nankeen under them; half-worn caſtor hat; worſted ſtockings and common coarſe ſhoes; is an artful fellow, and it is probable will change his cloaths; he was ſeen in the city yeſterday, with two other mulattoes; and is, perhaps, ſtill lurking about the town. I will pay 15 dollars for apprehending, ſecuring and giving information if in the city of Baltimore; if out of the city, in the county, 20 dollars; if out of the county, twenty dollars; and if out of the ſtate, the above reward, with all reaſonable charges.

CONRAD EISELEN.

N. B. Maſters of veſſels and others are warned againſt harboring or carrying off ſaid fellow, as the law will be put in force againſt them.
