STATE OF MARYLAND,
CITY OF BALTIMORE, ss.

BY JAMES CALHOUN, Mayor of the city of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has this day been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well founded apprehension that the malignant disease, with which the cities of Philadelphia and New-York are at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us, unless the usual intercourse be restrained;

I have, therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this proclamation, hereby forbidding the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as all baggage or other goods, which shall come from the said cities of Philadelphia and New-York, until they shall have been at least fifteen days absent therefrom, excepting only the public mail and such persons or things, as the commissioners of health may admit by a special licence, in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them, whereby the health of the city may be endangered.

This proclamation to remain in force until publickly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of three hundred dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the corporation.

Given under my hand, and the corporate seal of the city of Baltimore, this fourteenth day of September, eighteen hundred and three.

STATE OF MARYLAND,
CITY OF BALTIMORE, ss.

By JAMES CALHOUN, Mayor of the city of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS I have this day received a report from the commissioners of health that a malignant and mortal fever now prevails in the town of Alexandria, and there is reason to apprehend the said disease may be introduced into this place, unless the usual intercourse with said town be at this time restrained;

I have therefore, by and with the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this Proclamation, hereby forbidding the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as all baggage or other goods, which have come from the said town of Alexandria, until they shall have been at least fifteen days absent therefrom, excepting only the public mail and such persons or things as the commissioners of health may admit by a special licence, in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them, whereby the health of the city may be endangered.

Dancing.

JAMES ROBARDET

RETURNS his greatful acknowledgments to his friends and patrons, and informs them and the public generally, that his Dancing Academy is open, at his house in Second-street. A residence of twelve years in Baltimore, and his constant attendance and attention to his pupils, he hopes will be a sufficient recommendation to those who have not yet favored him with their patronage; those who will please to favor him, may rest assured that the greatest attention and care will be paid to their instruction and deportment.

Days of tuition for young ladies will be Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, from three o'clock, P. M. until six; and for gentlemen the above days, from six until nine. His terms will be made known at his school-room. For private tuition, please to apply as above.

He returns his grateful acknowledgments to the citizens of Hager's-town, for their very uniform attention and politeness, and assures them, that he will have the pleasure to be with them again early next Spring.

Valuable Lands and Lots

FOR SALE.

I Will Sell, on liberal terms of payment, to accommodate purchasers, the following Property, bequeathed to me, in trust with power to sell, by the late Mr. Thomas Dick, of Bladensburg, viz.

THE valuable Farm which he had in his own possession, and lands adjoining thereto, containing in the whole upwards of 1300 acres. These lands are situated to the northward of Bladensburg, on the Eastern Branch of Potowmak river, about three miles distant from that town, on a fine level road. From Bladensburg to the City of Washington, by land, the distance is four miles, and by water five; and the Eastern Branch is navigable for large craft to said town. There is a great abundance of wood on the lands, and they are well watered in every respect; have a considerable quantity of rich bottom, some of which is already in grass. The improvements on the farm are good, and the whole under good fences. These lands can conveniently be laid off into three parcels, with improvements to each, and will be sold together or separately.

Part of a tract of Land, called Hills and Dales, lying in Montgomery county, on the north-west branch of the Eastern Branch of Potomak, about six miles from Bladensburg, and about the same distance from Washington, containing 70¼ acres.

Part of another tract, called Crawford's Adventure, lying to the south-east of Bladensburg, nearly adjoining the town, and adjoining the lands of the late Richard Henderson, esq. containing 160 acres all in wood. And 83¾ acres of valuable Marsh and low land, on the said Eastern Branch, about half a mile below that town, and adjoining the said lands of the late Mr. Henderson.

The House and Lot in Bladensburg, on which the late Mr. Dick resided, containing about six acres; this is one of the best situations in the town, is generally admired, and commands a very extensive view. There is a good garden, ice house, stable, and all other offices necessary for the accommodation of a private family, and the lot and garden properly inclosed, and all in good order.

One other lot or parcel of Ground, adjoining the town lots, near the above mentioned house, and contiguous to the residence of Richard T. Lowndes, esq. containing 9⅜ acres.

Also, Lot No 7, in square No. 704, in the City of Washington, being the north-east corner of that square, containing 9388 square feet.

A further description of the property is considered unnecessary, as persons inclined to purchase will doubtless satisfy themselves by viewing the same. Mr. John Heugh, at present residing in Bladensburg, will shew the property, and the terms may be particularly known on application to him, or to

JOHN LAIRD, Trustee.

N. B. I hold 246½ acres of Land, adjoining the above mentioned tract of Hills and Dales, which may be advantageous and desirable for the purchaser of the latter to have—and I will sell the same on similar terms. John Laird.
