German Redemptioners.

Just arrived in the ship Cora, Samuel Hutchings, master, from Amsterdam,

About 200 men and women redemptioners; amongst whom are, mechanics, farmers, laborers and servants. These people being from the interior parts of Germany, merit the attention of those who wish to employ useful persons of the above description.

Their terms of servitude are to be disposed of by captain Hutchings, on board the ship, lying off Barton's wharf, at the Point, or by

GABRIEL WOOD.

N. B. To prevent the confusion that would ensue from the indiscriminate admission of persons to board the above ship, while her passengers are on board, as well as to comport with the city regulations in such cases, those disposed to make purchase of the time of the redemptioners, are hereby informed, that no admission to the ship can be had but by her boat, which will always be in attendance for that purpose, at the most convenient part of Barton's wharf.
