Notice.

THE drawing of the Town Clock and Alarm Bell Lottery will recommence on Monday next, the 7th November, at 3 o'clock, P. M. at the court houſe; and with pleaſure the managers inform the public, that the ſituation of ſaid lottery is now ſuch as will juſtify them in continuing the drawing from day to day, until completed. They are happy to inform the public that they have contracted with an eminent workman, from whom they have received every requiſite ſatisfaction for his due performance in making the clock on a large and elegant ſcale, which will be both uſeful and ornamental to the city. And the managers flatter themſelves, that the favorable ſtate of the wheel (being ſeveral hundred dollars richer than at firſt) will be an inducement to the public to come forward and purchaſe the few tickets yet remaining on hand, which may be had of any of the managers. Prize tickets in the St. John's church lottery, indorſed by any of its managers, or clerk of ſaid lottery, will be received in payment for tickets in this lottery.

 Remember, all prizes will be paid, without deduction, 30 days after the drawing is completed—the number of blanks leſs than two to a prize. November 1. d
