Republican, or Anti-Democrat.

A Political and Commercial Journal.

CONDITIONS.

FROM the first day of January next, this paper will commence to be published daily, on its present size, in four columns.

The price to subscribers will be seven dollars per annum, payable half yearly, in advance.

Advertisements, not exceeding one square, to be inserted the first three times for one dollar, and every succeeding time twenty-five cents.

All advertisements to be paid for when handed into the office for insertion.

The object of this paper is to diffuse useful information on general subjects; and to enforce the true interests of the government and the people, by exposing the false principles of Democracy, and the dangerous conduct of Democrats; and by supporting the genuine principles of Federal Republicanism, according to the dictates of our constitution.

Subscriptions, Advertisements, &. &c received at No. 37, South Gay-street, by the editor,
GEO: L. GRAY.
December 3. dtf

Public Sale.

To close the concern of Durant and Wiseham, will be sold by public auction, on Tuesday, the 17th of January, at the exchange coffee-house, (if not previously disposed of at private sale,)

THAT Valuable and Improved PROPERTY, situate in Gosport, in the county of Norfolk, known by the name of the GOSPORT DISTILLERY. The lot is about 120 feet square, building 100 feet by 37 in the clear, built of brick and wood, and has lately been put in complete repair. The situation is healthy and pleasant; good water may be had quite convenient. It contains one English made still of 1000 gallons, quite new and lately set up, with cap, worm and worm tub complete; one ditto of 1300 gallons, with cap, worm and worm tub in good working order; one doubling still of 450 gallons, with cap, worm and worm tub in good order; one large return tub; one ditto receiving ditto; two stand casks of 324 gallons each; three ditto of 270 gallons each; eight new cisterns of 2400 gallons each, one of which charges the two large stills; twenty-one ditto of 1300 gallons each, in good order, four ditto out of repair; two low wine cisterns of 500 gallons each, in good order; one hand mill for grinding malt; two copper cranes, buckets, funnels, &c. sufficient to conduct the business upon an extensive scale; machinery, spouts, pumps and leaders, capable of pumping out either of the cisterns and conveying the working liquor into either or all of the stills. These works are capable of turning out 600 gallons spirit every twenty-four hours, with the labor of only three men.

There is also a mill house, 40 feet by 30, in which there is a mill and a well of never-failing water, with three pumps working by machinery, which conveys the water into any part of the distillery. A creek runs up to the door affording sufficient water for lighters, making the communication with Norfolk easy, and the carriage of molasses, rum, &c. to and from the distillery cheap and facile. There is sufficient space on the lot to erect a dwelling house and a cooper's shop, which business might here be conducted to considerable advantage.

This property is well worth the attention of men of capital, that could always command a supply of molasses. The demand for rum is such that there is no danger of having any quantity on hand; and if sold at the moderate profit of three cents per gallon, the business would yield a clear gain of eighteen dollars per day.

The terms are six, twelve, and eighteen months credit, and payment must be made in good endorsed notes, payable at the office of discount and deposit in Norfolk, with a deed in trust upon the property until the whole is paid. John Gibbs, living at the distillery, will shew it to those inclined to view it. For further particulars apply to us
LEWIS E. DURANT, or RICHARD WISEHAM.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Fauquier county, (Virginia) a negro man named ZACHARY. He is a very tall black fellow, clean limbed, has lost the finger next the little one on his left hand; stutters in his speech, and is about twenty years old. He was at Mr. Travers Daniels, in Stafford county, about a fortnight ago, where he shewed a pass, certifying himself to be a free man, said to bear the signature of the clerk of Fauquier county. I will give a reward of thirty dollars for delivering him to me in Fauquier, (and two dollars for his pass,) and all lawful charges; or twenty dollars for lodging him in any gaol so that I get him again.
JAMES STIGLAR.
☞ All masters of vessels are forewarned from carrying him off.

Dancing School.

P. L. DUPORT tenders his respects to the ladies and gentlemen of this city, and informs those who are desirous of possessing themselves of the polite accomplishment which a knowledge of DANCING confers, that his SECOND quarter will commence on the 10th of January next, at Mr. Bryden's; and as it is probable his school will close for the present season at the termination of that quarter, he will not deem it expedient to enter into any engagement after the said 10th of January—but before that period, such as may enter his school may depend on his most assiduous exertions to insure their improvement.

Those who are not acquainted with him as a teacher, can, on applying to him, have reference to those families who know how far he merits public patronage. He intends shortly to give a PUBLIC BALL, when he flatters himself the proficiency of his scholars shall amply justify the degree of confidence reposed in him.

P. L. Duport will continue to give private lessons, without respect to any particular period of commencement.

N. B. A party of gentlemen are now learning the most new and fashionable Cotillions—others are solicited to join. The evenings for this party are Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 7 till 9, P. M.

☞ The Assembly which was proposed to be formed under the title of "The Juvenile," has to render it more general, been changed to "The Amicable." Those gentlemen who are disposed to become members of this assembly, are requested to meet at Mr. Bryden's assembly room on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock.
