FROM FRANCE.

By an arrival at Portland, from Bordeaux, French accounts are received as late as the 13th Sept. They however but briefly state, that it was the general opinion in France, that war between that country and Austria would be declared in the course of a few days; and that in cousequence of this expectation a great stagnation of business prevailed throughout all the maritime ports.

NEW-YORK, November 1.

Captain Anderson, of the Calliope, left Nantz the 16th September. He informs that the British frigate Dido had captured the French frigate Cybelle, after a desparate engagement of 4 hours; and that the new French frigate La Topaze, out of Nantz, had fallen in with the British frigate Nymph, and after a most severe engagement, in which the greatest part of the Nymph's crew were killed, she struck her colors, and immediately sunk. In the act of sinking, the boats from the Topaze saved the remnant of her crew. The above engagement were in the channel.

Yesterday arrived at this port the United States brig Hornet, Isaac Chauncey, esq. commander, in 48 hours from Hampton Roads. The Hornet is a beautiful new vessel, burthen nearly 500 tons, mounts 18 nines, but is to carry 18 forty-eight lb. carronades, and is, it is said, the fastest sailer in our navy. Captain Chauncey spoke the frigate Cambrian, off the Hook.

The British frigate Cambrian, captain Beresford, has again arrived off Sandy-Hook, from Halifax, and recommenced the examination of inward bound vessels.

The report of the prevalence of a malignant fever at Lynn, Mass. is contradicted by the physicians at that place, who state that the disorder is nothing but the bilious fever of the season.

The mayor of the city has issued a proclamation, offering a reward of 100 dollars, for the apprehension of the person or persons, who murdered a male infant on the 28th ult. by placing it in the mud under the bridge at Sandy-hill, where it languished and afterwards died.

Arrived, ship Calliope, Anderson, in 44 days from Nantz. Left ship Patsy, Bowles, repairing; brig Comet, Centre, to sail in 2 days; brig Jefferson, Lewis, of Philadelphia; ship Echo, Higgins, for the southward; ship William Penn, Watson, nearly ready for sea; brig Pallas, just arrived from Charleston; captain Appleton, for Boston, and another schooner; ship Foxwell, Swaine, of Pepperelborough, repairing; schooner Dupee, of Marblehead; ship Eliza, Bennet, just arrived from N. York; and ship Ohio, Williams, of Norfolk. The Calliope was detained off the Hook 4 hours by the Cambrian, and had her letters opened.

The ship Sarah & Eliza, Holland, in 50 days from Liverpool.

The ship Eliza, Griffith, of N. Orleans, from Wilmington, Del. This was the ship that was aground on the east bank—no damage.

The brig Friends, Sebring, (at quarantine) in 27 days from Curracoa. Oct. 18, lat. 30, 51, spoke the brig Susanna, from Wilmington, Del. for Havana. Oct. 25, brig Success, 12 days from St. Thomas, for Philadelphia.

The brig Argus, Brown, of New-Haven, in 20 days from St. Croix. The schooner George, Buskirk, was to sail in 10 days for New-York. Also there, 2 Newbern schooners. Was boarded by the Cambrian.

The ship Wealthy, Clark, in 41 days from Demerara. The brig Heroine, Smith, of New-London, was to sail in 6 days for New-York. The Wealthy has experienced 7 gales, and received some damage—was humanely supplied with provisions by capt. Cooper, of the ship Perseverance, 2 days from Norfolk for Bordeaux, Passengers, Dr. Bradford, lady and family.

Cleared, ships Minerva, Heron, Nantz; Clarissa, Stowell, Guadaloupe; brig Mary, M'Millen, Amsterdam; schrs. Gen. Green, Jones, Maracaibo; Industry, Sabin, Turks Island.

The brig Polly, Tripp, of Tiverton, R. I. and schooner Mary Ann, Anthony, of Boston were carried into Porto Rico, the 7th and 8th Sept. and condemned, being bound to Barbadoes, with horses, contraband.

Below, the brig Heroine, Smith, from Demerara and the brig Sarah, of Boston, from St. Domingo, which was ashore on the east bank. In the offing, several square-rigged vessels.

PHILADELPHIA, November 2.

Extract of a letter from Halifax, dated October 12.

"The trial of the Indus and cargo came on the 9th inst. when contrary to our expectations, both ship and owner's part of the cargo were condemned, on the ground that it appeared it was intended to send her from Boston to Embden with the same goods."

Arrived, ship Hannah, Yardsley, Matanzies, 24 days; brig Mentor, Thurston, St. Thomas; schooner Abeona, Shaw, Point-Petre.

Cleared, brigs Cyrus, Smith, Havana; sch's Stranger Wallington, York-Town; Three Friends, Hawes, Norfolk; sloop Sally, Latham, New-Orleans.

Brig Julia Dunlevy, from Martinico, and schooner Wealthy, Brady, from Havana, are below.

The citizens who frequent our market places experienced yesterday morning, the benefit and the satisfaction of the recent change in the city administration.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

Fell overboard from the New-Castle and Philadelphia Packet-boat, between the hours of five and six o'clock, 31st of October. P. M. about three miles above New-Castle, a passenger, name unknown. It appears he was by occupation an oyster-man—had disposed of his boat in N. C. for 40 dollars, one half in cash, and a note for the other—came on board in a state of intoxication—was observed to bring a quantity of spirituous liquor with him, of which he drank very freely, and by accounts of some of the crew, has left a widow and four children to lament his melancholy fate. The subscribers cannot help expressing the satisfaction they felt in the humanity of capt. Whilldin; who, with his boat, used every exertion to save this unfortunate man, but to no purpose: his intoxication rendered him incapable of using any efforts for his own safety.
