CELEBRATION OF THE 4th OF JULY.

This day, the Anniversary of one which signalized our entrance into the political world as a free nation, should be celebrated by all Americans; by all who are desirous to perpetuate the remembrance of our political birth, and by all whose hearts beat responsive to the calls of patriotism. Actuated by these feelings, the Rockville Union Lyceum and Montgomery Volunteers have determined to celebrate the day in an appropriate manner, and have made arrangements accordingly.

☞ The public are respectfully invited to attend.

PROGRAMME.

1st. The Members of the Lyceum and the Military Company will meet on the green, in front of the Court-house, at 8½ o'clock, A. M. and will march from thence to Mrs. Beall's woods, where preparations will have been made for the celebration. [Should the day be unfavorable for the celebration in the woods, a house sufficiently large will be procured.]

2nd. Music, "Hail Columbia."
3d. Prayer, by the Rev. Dr. MINES.
4th. The Declaration of Independence will be read, by THOS. J. MCCLENAHAN.
5th. Music, "Star Spangled Banner."
6th. Oration, by OTIS C. WIGHT, A.M.
7th. Prayer, by Rev. Mr. GALLAGHER.
8th. Music, "Yankee Doodle."

The Military Company will form and march to McGrath's Spring, about a mile on the city turnpike, where an appropriate collation will be prepared.

WOOL! WOOL!

Carding, Fulling & Manufacturing in General.

THE subscriber, grateful for past favors, informs his friends and the public generally, that he is now prepared to CARD WOOL, FULL CLOTH, or MANUFACTURE ALL KINDS OF WOOLLEN GOODS, on very reasonable terms. Having considerably increased his machinery, and put it in the best order, he is now prepared to do a great deal more work than usual, and will warrant it to be well done.

Wool will be carded either in the old or new style, as directed by the owner, and one-third more work put on it than usual, as it will be carded twice over.

The cash price for carding will be 5½ cents per pound; or if I furnish the oil 7 cents. If the cash is not paid on delivery, the price will be 6¼ and 8 cents per pound.

Wool will be received at all times by Messrs. VEIRS & HIGGINS, Rockville; and by Mr. TURNER BALL, on the Georgetown and Rockville turnpike, where the subscriber will attend to receive wool and deliver work every two weeks, commencing on the second Saturday in July.

The subscriber keeps on hand a general assortment of WOOLLEN GOODS which he will sell, or exchange for wool, on reasonable terms. He will also receive wool in payment for work, at the market price. THOS. FAWCETT,

C.—The proprietor of the above extensive establishment, in announcing to his customers the arrival of a part of his new and splendid stock of SPRING AND SUMMER FASHIONS, begs leave to assure them that every article not of his own manufacture has been purchased with the greatest discrimination as regards style and quality, and at the very lowest rates for cash, and trusts that the reputation it has so long enjoyed as the place for the most tasteful articles in his line will be fully sustained. The most assiduous and unremitting personal attention will be given, it being his wish to make his the most popular establishment in the country.

Gentlemen's splendid black BEAVER HATS, extra light, for summer;

Gentlemen's splendid CASSIMERE HATS, extra light, for summer, unsurpassed for fineness and evenness of texture and symmetrical figure;

Gentlemen's MOLESKIN HATS, richly lustred and most elegantly finished. The undersigned believes that the manufacture of this most favorite wear is now perfected. Its peculiar qualities are, first, the richness and permanence of its color; second, its great durability, from not being liable to crack or break; third, being entirely water-proof, and its shape not altered by the heat of summer; fourth, the price being only about one half of the sum asked for a hat but a few years since.

The Parisian steel-framed Hats, for some peculiarities very desirable;

Gentlemen's pure white Oregon Beaver Hats, very fine and rich;

Gentlemen's white, pearl, and blue Cassimere Hats;

Panama Hats, with extra wide brims, "Orleans pattern," very white and beautifully shaped;

Gentlemen's Leghorn, double and single brims;

Ladies' RIDING HATS, new style;
BOYS' GENOA HATS;
Do Parisian do
A few cartons children's FLORENCE CAPS, believed to be all of the kind ever imported, most tastefully trimmed;

Infants' fine Leghorn Hats, of select patterns;

A very large assortment of boys' and children's Leghorn, Seanette, and other summer Hats, unequalled in extent, variety and style.

Military & Naval Chapeaux.

The undersigned will give his attention to the finishing of these according to regulations. Also, Chapeaux for the Diplomatic Corps; together with blue Cloth CAPS, embroidered to suit every branch of service, as—

General Staff, Medical Staff, Topographical Engineer, Ordnance, Artillery, Infantry, Revenue, Marine and Navy.
