$150 REWARD.

RUNAWAY from the farm of Mrs. Scott, four miles west of Rockville, Montgomery county, Md. on Tuesday, the 2nd inst, my NEGRO MAN, HARRY MASON, a slave for life, whom I hired there for the present year. Harry is very black; stout built; about six feet or upwards high; a good suit of hair, and generally wears large whiskers; perhaps he has taken them off; a very large and beautiful set of teeth, and perhaps a little defect in one of his eyes; took with him a good many clothes, of different descriptions.

I will give $50 if taken in Montgomery county; $100 if taken in the District of Columbia, Virginia, or any of the other counties of this State; and $150 if taken in any other State, and secured in jail so that I get him again.

Also, his wife disappeared at the same time, belonging to the heirs of Samuel Crown, a slave for life, who calls herself CAROLINE, about five feet high, copper color. Both those servants were born and raised in this immediate neighborhood. There is also a reward offered for Caroline, the wife of Harry.

Any information will be thankfully received. Post Office, Rockville, Montgomery county, Md.

C. C. GETZENDANNER.

Any information given to D. H. CANDLER, Rockville, Montgomery Co., Md., will be punctually attended to.

We will here take the liberty to observe to gentlemen who purchase their own wear, that all the Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings we offer, are of the most superior quality, being of the same grade that have been imported for and sold by us for the past five years, and are warranted to prove as represented in every case.

DAILY EXPECTED: A sslendid assortment of STRAW BONNETS with RIBONS to suit, of the most modern styles.

Having entered into arrangements with many of the most extensive importing and other merchants in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, to forward us the newest and most desirable styles of the day, as they appear in their respective markets, we shall be in daily receipt of Goods of some kind or other.

We profess to do business in the most straight forward and honorable manner, observing a strict uniformity of prices on all occasions, and warranting all articles to prove as represented, or the money refunded. The public are earnestly invited to call. A liberal discount made to the trade. PERRY & ASHBY,
