Election, Tuesday, November 2d.

THE ELECTION.

Judging from the apparent apathy prevailing in the community, one might be led to suppose that in the opinion of many the election to be held in Maryland on Tuesday next, for Comptroller, delegates to the Legislature, Senators in a portion, and Sheriffs and County Commissioners in all the counties of the State and city of Baltimore, was unimportant. But when it is viewed in its true light and character, the principles involved are of great magnitude.

In the first place, the fifteenth Constitutional amendment is to receive the approbration or disproval of our next Legislature. The great question of negro suffrage and negro equality is to be decided by Maryland. Is there a man in Kent county, who can hesitate as to what course he should pursue to maintain the ascendancy of the white race? or will he suffer his prejudices and party feelings to lead him to the support of this principle of odious equality? If any one shall remain at home and not vote, assuming that there will be enough to carry the election without his aid, does he not thereby prejudice the great cause, and manifest an indifference to the question whether equality of races shall prevail or not? No man can consistently say that he is opposed to that equality and yet vote the radical ticket! "By their fruits ye shall know them," and no profession of opposition to that odious ure, can wipe away the stain and o bium of a vote for the party that ma one of its fundamental principles.

We have read accounts that in the ...ork of Baltimore, in radical conventions in ...men as Bond, Creswell, Stockton, ...ing, and others, have sat side by sid... ...spoken and voted with the African! ...have laid down the principles and made the platform for those who support negro suffrage.

But, in addition to the effect of the adoption of this measure as stated, it will take from the States the right to control or regulate suffrage, or the elective franchise, in their own limits. Now, the States can exclude Mahomedans, Chinese, Japanese, Africans, &c., but if this amendment is adopted no State can exclude them, and we may have all races and all colors selecting our legislators and rulers. Can any one who wishes to preserve the honor of his State, her unsullied reputation, and our institutions, support or be indifferent to a party or measure that involves such consequences? Let the people reflect before they allow the prejudices of party to lead them to such a course and to such results. Any diminution of the Democratic and Conservative vote will be hailed by the radicals as a falling off and reduction of our strength, and an increase of strength and interest by them and for their party—in other words, that our people are swinging around to African equality.

Let no such inference or argument be justified by the absence of a single vote of our people. But let every voter do his duty, and in after life, when he converses with his children around the fireside, let him be able to rehearse a performance of duty in this respect that shall preserve his name unsullied. Let not business or the weather, or anything short of serious sickness prevent any one from voting.

We have candidates for various offices, who have a right to expect our attendance at the polls and our support.—They have been regularly nominated and selected for their respective places. Every one has his friends in the primary meetings, and it would be strange if he had not. Unanimity is not expected in such cases; it never has existed, nor can it be found in any community. But the difference of opinion and excitement of nominating meetings and conventions pass away with the occasions that gave them existence. We are all brethren—contending for the same principles, and when the election comes we are found shoulder to shoulder in a common cause, and work together for its triumph. Let us then, forgetting the things which are behind, press forward to the support of those who are but the agents to carry out and sustain our principles. Let no one absent himself from the polls. We owe something to our country—to our State—our cause, our candidates, and to our consistency. Let us then, one and all, do all we can to sustain and vindicate them on Tuesday next.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The following cases, in addition to those reported in our last issue, were tried on Friday and Saday of last week:

John Hall, for selling liquor to minors. Not guilty. Hynson and Slay for def.

J. W. Rasin, for allowing gambling in his house. Guilty; fined $25 and costs. Hynson and Slay for defence.

I. F. Younger, same charge. Fine $25 and costs. Hynson and Slay for def.

B. H. Gardner, same charge; two cases; fined $50 in first and $25 in second.

Geo. Washington, for assault and battery on Asbury Thomas. Guilty; fined 10 cts. and imprisoned in jail two weeks.

Eliza Posey, for stealing feathers from W. L. Bowers. Not guilty. Vickers and Pearce for State; Hynson for def.

Geo. Carrow, for stealing wheat from J. N. Moffett. Guilty. Vickers for def.

Eben Brown, for receiving stolen wheat. Not guilty. Vickers for def.

Upon the recommendation of the grand jury, after a hearing before the Court, the liquor licenses of Jas. M. Vandyke and Samuel Crouch were suppressed.

SENTENCED.—The following negroes, convicted at the October term of the Circuit Court, were sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for the periods named: John E. Gale, ten years; Robert Blake, eight years; Shade Brown, eight years, and Birt Williams four years, all for stealing clothing from Turkheimer & Catlin. Robert H. Gibson, for horse stealing, ten years. Jas. Taylor, for stealing clothing from Venzil Benzini, three years. Geo Carroll, for stealing wheat from J. N. Moffett, eighteen months.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. J. L. Bowers, near I. U., met with an accident on Monday evening last, which though slight, was a narrow escape from serious injury. It seems that he was in the act of loading a Colt's revolver, when it exploded, the ball grazing the palm of his left hand and lacerating the flesh badly. His wife and daughter were sitting on either side and within a few feet of him at the time, but sustained no injury.

ACQUITTED.—The evidence before the Grand Jury against Eliza Posey, colored, charged with attempting to poison Mr. Wm. L. Bowers, was not sufficient to sustain the indictment, and the woman has been released. The powdered substance which Mr. B. discovered the woman putting in the coffee cup he was about to use, and which he supposed to be arsenic, was analysed by Prof. Higgins, of Baltimore, and proved to be carbonate of lime.

SALE OF MILL PROPERTY.—Capt. Thos. DeC. Ruth of this town, has sold his Mill called "Providence," and farm of 100 acres attached, in Queen Anne's county, to Mr. George W. Taylor of Centreville, for $14,000.

THE report of the treasurer of the board of School Commissioners has been received, but too late for this issue. It will be published next week.

QUEEN ANNE'S COURT.—The November term of the Circuit Court for Queen Ann's county commences on Monday next.

THE TENNESSEE SENATORSHIP.—The Senatorial contest in Tennessee is ended, and the result has taken every one by surprise. Ex-President Johnson's friends felt confident of his success, but it appears a trap was sprung on him, as when the vote was taken Johnson received 51, and Henry Cooper of Davidson county, 55—the opposition having concentrated on the latter, who is a gentleman of fine abilities and has been a consistent Union man throughout. Intense excitement prevailed on the announcement of the vote.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Thursday, the 18th of November, having been set apart by the President as a day of thanksgiving and praise, Governor Bowie has, in accordance, issued his proclamation to the people of Maryland, calling upon them to give thanks and praise for the bounteous blessings bestowed upon them during the past year, to abstain from all secular employment, and devote themselves humbly to its proper observance.

The State Agricultural Fair.

THE OPENING DAY—LARGE ATTENDANCE—DESCRIPTION OF THE GROUNDS—A KENT HORSE WINS A RACE.

The opening of the first annual fair of the Maryland State Agricultural and Mechanical Association took place Tuesday at their fair grounds at Pimlico, and was an event auguring well for the future prosperity of the association. It is estimated that there were upwards of ten thousand persons present, embracing representatives from the mercantile, mechanical, industrial, and, in fact, every interest of the city.

The attendance of ladies was very large, and they appeared to greatly enjoy the ever-varying scenes presented. From an early hour until noon the throng poured into the grounds, the officers at the gates at times being scarcely able to receive the tickets as fast as presented. The various avenues leading to the grounds during the day presented a scene not often witnessed in this locality, all the roads being lined with vehicles of every description, from the stately four-in-hand down to the covered furniture wagon, and all filled with passengers, whilst many were on foot, all eager to lend a helping hand in inaugurating the fair.

THE GROUNDS AND BUILDINGS.

The fair grounds comprise seventy-seven acres, trapezoidal in form, nearly a square, and are situated two miles from the northwestern boundary of Baltimore, on a plateau, at an altitude of four hundred and twenty-seven feet above tide-water. The grounds are enclosed with a substantial fence, and the surroundings are strikingly picturesque. The main building is the pavilion, an imposing structure, two hundred and eighty feet in length, forty feet wide, and fifty feet high from basement to apex of roof. The upper floor, which is devoted exclusively to spectators, will seat three thousand persons, and the rows of seats are arranged one above the other, so as to afford to all an unobstructed view of the race track and surroundings at all times. The pavillion, during the trials of speed yesterday, was filled with ladies and gentlemen—and presented a beautiful appearance. There was a good band of music on the pavillion facing the judges' stand on the opposite side of the track, and as the fast steeds came down the home stretch, amid the waving of handkorchiefs by the ladies, the shouts of the men, and the music of the band the scene was very enlivening. The lower floor, stretching the entire length of the building, is devoted to the exhibition of pomological and horticultural products, ladies' handiwork and household manufactures generally. Here can be found a great variety of useful and ornamental articles, mammoth pumpkins, choice fruit, preserves, &c. Immediately adjoining are the large dining saloons, under the management of the Messrs. Bernard, of the Sherwood House, where all who were able to gain admission yesterday fared sumptuously at city prices.

The cattle sheds are twenty-nine in number, ten of which have twenty-four stalls each, and nineteen with twenty-two stalls each. They will accommodate between 700 and 800 head of stock. These sheds occupy a space semi-circular in form, and the stalls are fan-shaped.—This arrangement economises space, and enables all to obtain a full view of the animal without bringing it from the stall. The stabling ranges along the northwestern portion of the grounds, for a distance of about a half mile. The stalls are roomy and well ventilated, and 120 in number. They are occupied exclusively by roadsters and draft horses. The fast and blooded stock is accommodated with stabling in the northeastern part of the enclosure. Hogs and sheep are well cared for in the southwestern portion of the grounds. Six large sheds have been erected, each of sufficient size to contain twelve pens, and each pen accommodating with ease ten animals.

THE HORSES AND CATTLE.

The blooded and quick draft horses, the horses for general utility, the heavy draft and imported horses, all claimed much attention, the imported stallions Hercules and Mark Antony, of the Percheron breed, imported and owned by William T. Walters, Esq., being very favorably commented on, both for their symmetry of form and ponderous proportions. Prince Imperial, an imported stallion, owned by J. J. Parker, Esq., of West Chester, Pennsylvania, is also a noble looking animal, and was greatly admired.

The cattle pens are nearly all occupied, and competent judges aver that a finer collection has never before been brought together in this section of country. The American bred cattle have been brought to such perfection that it is a difficult matter for the uninitiated to distinguish them from the imported. The short horns, the Devons, the Alderneys, the Jerseys, the Ayrshires and the natives are all fully represented, from the sucking calf to the matured animal.

The display of imported and American bred sheep is also very fine. There are the long wools, the middle wools and the fine wools, bucks, ewes and lambs, all in the best possible condition. There are several pens of fat sheep, and some fine specimens of slaughtered mutton.

The pens containing swine are objects of no little curiosity, the display being acknowledged generally as being the finest ever made in Maryland.

TRIALS OF SPEED—A KENT COUNTY HORSE WINS A RACE.

The second trot was participated in by mares, stallions or geldings which had never beaten three minutes in public, mile heats, best two in three, in harness, the winner to receive $200, and the second best $100. There were six entries, viz: C. A. Murphy's mare, (no name.) W. W. Stephen's horse, Mount; J. Murphy's mare, Mary Louise; Mr. Sheeler's horse, (no name;) D. Pifer's horse, Long Green, and Mr. Eames's horse Vermont. There was considerable difficulty in getting the horses properly started, but they finally came up to the scratch pretty even for the first heat, when the word was given to "go," and go they did at a rapid rate for green horses. Long Green and Vermont fell so far behind in the first heat that many thought they would be non est in the second, but they came up at the call. They both soon fell off, and quietly trotted in, their owners being satisfied with the speed and bottom displayed in green and unpractiged horses.

The contest from the first seemed to be between Mount, a Kent county horse, a noble looking gray, said to have only a few days since been taken from the plow, and Mr. Sheeler's horse, which won the first heat, but Mount won the second and third, the last by less than half a length. Time 2.43, 2.41½, and 2.43½. The result was hailed with many demonstrations of delight by the many gentlemen from Kent county present. The trot was considered one of the finest witnessed in this section of country for some time.

BALTIMORE CITY AND THE KENT COUNTY RAILROAD.—In the Baltimore papers of Tuesday, we find the following proceedings of the City Council, with reference to an appropriation in aid of the Kent County Railroad:

Mr. Owens presented the report of the majority of the special committee appointed on the petition of P. P. Pendleton and others soliciting aid from the city of Baltimore to construct a railroad from Elkton to Massey's Cross Roads, in Kent county, Md. They would respectfully report that they have visited the localities referred to, and have carefully considered the propriety of granting the desire of the petitioners, but cannot say that any advantage would result to the city of Baltimore by a connection that would place Philadelphia and other places east of us to an advantage, and would recommend that the matter, so far as it can, be submitted to the next session of the city council. Signed by Messrs. Brown and White, of the second branch, and Messrs. Escavaille and Wickersham, of the first branch. Also a resolution discharging the committee from the further consideration of the subject. Mr. Owens also presented the report of the minority of the same committee on the same subject, containing the same recommendation as the majority report, but including a recommendation that the city lend its aid by endorsing the bonds of the Kent County railroad to the amount of about $200,000, to enable the company to extend its line to Rock Hall. Pending the consideration of the reports, the branch adjourned.

DEATH OF TEAGLE TOWNSEND, ESQ.—Teagle Townsend, Esq., of Worcester county, died suddenly on the steamer Cambridge, on Saturday last, while returning home from a visit to Baltimore. His illness was dropsy of the chest or heart disease. Mr. Townsend was about seventy-three years of age, and was widely known throughout the State as an influential politician on the Eastern Shore. He was, many years ago, a member of the State Senate, and was several times elected to the House of Delegates, and also register of wills of Worcester county for many years. Mr. Townsend was an active member of the old whig party, and prominent in political conventions and party movements. He was highly esteemed for his social qualities, and had a large number of friends who will regret to hear of his death.

PIKE'S VEGETABLE AMBROSIA.

This favorite Hair Restorer has been before the public long enough to have been thoroughly tested and its increasing sale and popularity are the best evidences of its superior merit.

As a Restorer of Gray Hair to its original color it has no equal.

For curing Diseases of the scalp and preventing itching it is wonderfully successful.

For preventing the Hair from falling off it is unfailing.

For restoring Hair to Bald Heads it succeeds beyond Competition, although not always successful. Where the glands or follicles are not destroyed new Hair is sure to grow after using it properly.

As a dressing nothing surpasses it. It imparts to dry, faded and wiry Hair that beautiful glossy appearance so much admired.

Containing no oil or grease it does not soil the finest linen.

It is compounded upon Scientific principles of the purest ingredients and is entirely harmless.

Being perfumed with the most fragrant Extracts its odor is delightful.

TESTIMONIALS almost without number can be given if necessary but the AMBROSIA is too well known to require it. Once used you will never be without it.
