The Election in Kent.

The election in this county on Tuesday passed off quietly. But little interest was manifested, and a very small vote was polled. The registration of the county is 2,134, while there were but 1,379 votes cast for Comptroller, of which Woolford received 1,198 and McKellip 181. The following is the official vote in detail:

The Result in the State.

Sufficient returns have been received to show that the election in this State on Tuesday resulted in the success of the Democratic Conservative ticket in every county and the city of Baltimore. Col. Woolford is elected Comptroller of the Treasury by a very large majority. The vote everywhere, however, was small, but larger in the upper counties of the Western Shore, where the Radicals make their heaviest poll, than elsewhere in the State.

Queen Anne's County.—All the candidates on the "first ticket" elected, except the school commissioner in the second district, where Dr. Parvis beats Newnam 11 votes. The following is the vote:

For Comptroller—Woolford 1760, McKellip 235—Woolford's majority 1525.

First ticket: for Sheriff—Temple 1082. Legislature—Brown 1228, Thomas 1151. County Commissioners—Tanner 1200, Bailey 1210, Price 1200.

Second ticket: for Sheriff—Story 910. For Legislature—Emory 796, Ford 813. County Commissioners—Goodhand 786, Wilmer 849, Tolson 694.

Baltimore City.—There were only 18,848 votes cast for Comptroller, of which Woolford received 13,650, and McKellip 5,198; majority for Woolford 8,452. The whole democratic Legislative ticket is elected by about the same average majority. The vote of the city was upwards of 24,000 short of the registration.

Other State Elections.

Elections also took place on Tuesday in the following States, viz: New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Illinois and Wisconsin. In New York and New Jersey the Democrats achieved a signal victory; the others were carried by the Radicals, some by reduced majorities:

New York.—The Albany Argus claims the election of the democratic State ticket by 24,000 majority, with 18 democratic Senators and 70 democratic members of the Assembly. This gives the democrats the entire control of the State government.

New Jersey.—The Senate will stand 13 democrats, 8 republicans—House 34 democrats, 26 republicans—democratic gain 1 in the Senate and 2 in Assembly.

FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.—The following is the fifteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States which the State of Virginia has lately adopted, and which Mississippi and Texas are required to adopt as a condition precedent to restoration to the Union:

"The right of the citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State, on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude. The Congress shall have power to enforce the article by appropriate legislation."

Of the seven States which voted on Tuesday last, Minnesota, New Jersey and Maryland have yet to take action on the Fifteenth Amendment. Minnesota will no doubt ratify it, and there will still be wanting five States to complete the necessary three-fourths.

THE NEXT ELECTIONS.—The next elections occur on the 30th instant, in Texas and Mississippi, on adopting the new State constitutions and for offices under them. The total registration in Mississippi is 139,937, of whom 59,176 are white and 80,761 colored. There were 76,016 votes cast at the convention election, of which 93,822 were colored and 69,737 were for the convention. In Texas the vote for the convention last year was 54,388, giving 30,896 majority in its favor; but several counties are not included in the return.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—The Governors of nineteen States have designated the 18th instant as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. This is the day originally fixed by the President for national thanksgiving. The day will probably be observed in nearly all the States.

UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM MAINE.—Governor Chamberlain has appointed Hon. Lot M. Morrill United States Senator, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Fessenden.

NEGRO EMANCIPATION CELEBRATION.—The steamer Geo. Weems, having been chartered for the purpose, left our wharf on Wednesday evening for Baltimore with a large number of colored persons to participate in the emancipation celebration which took place in that city on Thursday. A procession was formed, with music and mounted marshals, and quite a display was made in proceeding to the steamer. The music, which was by a Worton band, was ample in quantity but of most wretched quality. When they passed our office it was not easy to determine whether they were playing "Yankee Doodle" or the "Old Cow died in the Mire."

CURE FOR CANCER.—The following cure for this distressing malady has been sent to us for publication by Mrs. Anne Allen, an estimable lady of Still Pond. She states that she had a friend entirely cured by it, and two others are improving by its use, and that she feels it incumbent upon her to make it public for the benefit of any one suffering with the disease:

Outward Application: Take of pure carbolic acid ¼ ounce to one quart water, to apply to the cancer with fine linen cloths. To be taken inwardly: ⅛ of an ounce of pure carbolic acid to one quart of water, of which take one tablespoonful fifteen minutes before each meal.

ECCLESIASTICAL.—Rev. Dr. S. B. Southerland, President of the Maryland Annual Conference, Methodist Protestant Church, is now on his official visit to the churches in Kent county. He will preach at Waters' Chapel to-morrow at 10½ o'clock, A. M., and at Christ Church, Chestertown, at 7½ o'clock P. M. On Sunday, 14th inst., he will preach at St. James' at 10½ o'clock A. M., and at Wesley Chapel in the evening.

SALE OF A HOUSE AND LOT.—D. James Blackiston, Esq., sold at trustee's sale at Millington, on Saturday last, a house and lot in that town, belonging to Samuel Hurlock. Purchased by Jas. A. Edwards for $1,506.

VENDUE.—J. W. & C. W. K. Croney will sell their personal property at their residence in Broad Neck on Tuesday next.

A REVOLUTION IN FARMING.—The Baltimore American makes the following mention of a new machine on exhibition at the late State Agricultural fair:

The only real genuine Maryland invention that was on exhibition, and one that will, in a short time revolutionize the manner of preparing the soil for the reception of grain, was the "Revolving Sulky Harrow." This implement deposits the fertilizer, grain, grass and seed at one time, and while pulverizing the soil covers the two first in a beautifully prepared seed bed, and leaves the latter deposited upon the finely comminuted soil in the rear, to be "set" by the first shower. The inventor labored for five years in perfecting the machine; and when he regarded it as being perfect in all its bearings, he brought it to the notice of farmers and others, by first placing it on exhibition at the Cattle Show, instead of rushing it before the public prematurely, so often the cause of failure. In novelty of construction, design and execution, the machine stands alone, with no other "Richmond in the field." It will accomplish from 10 to 15 acres per diem, depending upon the skill of the driver, quality of team and soil. Its great advantage is that there is nothing local in its character, but is adapted to universal use in every quarter of the globe, where wheat, rye, oats, barley, buckwheat, peas, etc., are grown, and will go in immediately after the plows without rolling or any other preparation. With it there need be no fear of land being run "together" after rain, for the farmer, with this great implement, can put in his seeds and fertilizers as rapidly as he can plow, and go home at night and smile at the storm. The machine can be seen at the establishment of R. Sinclair & Co., on Light street. The inventor of this great labor-saving machine is a Mr. Taveau, from one of the lower counties, a farmer of great intellectual researches and one of the most substantial gentlemen in his section of the country. Besides receiving the first premium, Mr. T. was awarded the gold medal for his invention.

A "FASHIONABLE WEDDING" IN PHILADELPHIA.—The Philadelphia papers record what they style a "fashionable wedding." It took place in that city on Wednesday evening of last week at the Spring Garden Methodist Episcopal Church.—The bride was the daughter of Bishop Simpson, and the bridegroom J. Riely Weaver, lately appointed to a consulship in Italy. Gen. Grant and family, together with many government officials, were present at the wedding. The Inquirer says:

The bride was the recipient of handsome presents, valued at many thousands of dollars, including a grand parlor organ, escretoire, silver tea sets, whole services of solid silver, some six dozen silver spoons and forks, table linen, silver pitchers and goblets, oyster tureens and salvers, coffee urns, cake and fruit knives, handsome Bibles, toilet sets, medicine chest, napkin rings, pearls, paintings, work basket, glass and silver ware of peculiar kind and construction, with many other articles, making in the aggregate over one hundred in number, and being a rich and rare collection. In addition to these, checks were drawn for sums of $100 on the Bank of North America by James Long, and $500 by John Evans, of Colorado, on the First National Bank of Denver. A $100 greenback was also presented by Mrs. Thomas Price, of Philadelphia.

THE coming winter it is predicted from the unusually early migration of the birds, and from other signs of the animal and vegetable world will be very severe. The same intelligence comes from England, where frost, snow and ice have made their appearance. The snow storms that have already occurred in the North and West of the United States seem to confirm the predictions of a severe winter.

THE LATE STATE FAIR.—The Baltimore Sun, of Saturday last, commenting upon the late Agricultural Fair, remarks:

With yesterday closed the first annual exhibition of the Maryland Agricultural and Mechanical Association at the Pimlico grounds, near this city, and considering that it is the first essay of a State fair since before the commencement of the late civil war, and that the whole project was on a basis of newness—new grounds, and in part new roads leading to them; new buildings in an unfinished condition, at that, with others yet to be erected, it was a grand and most encouraging success. It has afforded a very satisfactory augury, indeed, of what we may expect in the fall of 1870, when everything shall have been brought up to the improved condition designed. Of those fairs we may say that among the legitimate means for the promotion and advancement of Agriculture, the corner stone of all the other useful arts of life there are none more popular, and which seem better adapted to enlist public favor in its behalf. These fairs in the neighborhood of great cities have the advantage of interesting and enlightening upon the subject of agriculture large and influential populations which from the nature of their vocations, do not perhaps appreciate as it deserves the indispensable value of agriculture to the general welfare, especially those in which they are themselves engaged, and the consequent importance of encouraging and fostering it by their friendly countenance and energetic co-operation.

When city and country are thus brought together, both are made to feel their mutual dependence. Whilst cities are brought face to face with those great facts of nature in which they are so vitally concerned, the active co-operation with the agricultural interests of the great centres of capital and business activity, which can best be promoted by the contact, is of the highest importance to the successful cultivator of the soil. Thus it is that an agricultural festival, like that held this week in our neighborhood has had the effect of producing something more than a gay and inspiring exhibition, and must result in fruits which will be of value when its merely festive and ornamental accompaniments are forgotten.

THE PRESIDENT AND EX-PRESIDENT.—The Louisville Courier-Journal says:

We have it from reliable authority that last Sunday afternoon a prominent Southern politician called on General Grant, and that the conversation turned on the late Senatorial contest in Tennessee. "I suppose, Mr. President," said the visitor, "that you are pleased by the defeat of Mr. Johnson?" "Well, I don't know about that," Grant answered; "I don't know about that. As for myself I cared nothing about it; but I am really inclined to think Mr. Johnson's election would have been of service to my party."
