Sherman + Blake.

Agent reported that Mr. Blake had locked up some tools in consequence of which a dispute had arisen between him and Mr. Sherman, and that Mr. Blake had used some very ugly language. A motion prevailed that the Superintendent, Mr. Sherman, be sustained, and that the secretary communicate with Mr. Blake, which he did as follows:

Baltimore, June 14, 1910.

Mr. Jos. Blake,

Dear Sir, –

Bro. Smith, our agent, reported that a serious dispute had arisen between you and Mr. Sherman, in consequence of which we have to say, that the Trustees appreciate very much your past services, and would like to have a continuance of the same, provided you can obey and respect, Mr. Sherman, as superintendent.

By order of the Trustees,
John H. Smith, Sec.
