Special Meeting.

Baltimore July 20, 1919.

The Trustees of Shark St Station M. E. Church met in special session on the above date, and gave authority to the pastor, Rev. W. J. Harper, to employ Wm. E. Wood Co. to install a Heating Plant in the parsonage.

On motion of T. H. Brooks it was decided to give $50 to the Vacational Bible School, and enough to make up an additional $25, if they did not raise that amount at the closing exercises at the end of the term.

Baltimore Aug 4, 1919

The Trustees of Shark St. Station M. E. Church convened on the above date and opened with prayer by the president Rev. M. J. Naylor.

Those present:- Rev. M. J. Naylor, Wm. H. Booker, Thos. H. Brooks, Solomon Tripp, James O. Carter, Howard E. Young, Grant E. Biddle.

The minutes of the previous regular monthly meeting, and of a special meeting were read and approved, on motion of Howard E. Young.

On motion of H. E. Young $2.50 were appropriated for one of the teachers, Miss Ethel Scott, who was not provided for at the opening of the Vacation Bible School. Mrs. Helen Muse presented the report of the Vacation Bible School in the absence of the principal, Miss Cooper.

The cemetery report was read and approved on motion of Howard E. Young.

The Treasurer's report was read and approved on motion of Solomon Tripp.
