Grant E. Biddle, Sec.

Baltimore Oct. 7, 1919.

The Trustees of Sharp St. Station M. E. Church met on the above date, and open by singing Sweet Hour of Prayer, and prayer by the president.

Those present, Rev. M. J. Naylor, John S. Hardy, Thos. H. Brooks, Wm. H. Booker Grant E. Biddle

The minutes of the Sept. meetings were read and approved after necessary corrections.

The Cemetery Report was read and approved on motion of Thos. H. Brooks.

The Treasurer's Report was read, and approved on motion of John S. Hardy.

A committee of ladies who volunteered to do some necessary cleaning about the church, reported what had been done, and the secretary was instructed to communicate with the said committee, conveying to them the thanks of the trustees, for their valuable services rendered, and let them know that Bro. John S. Hardy had been appointed to look after the matters mentioned in their report.

On motion of Thos. H. Brooks, it was decided to have the Trustee's Rally on Nov. 9, 1919.
