Baltimore Jan. 8, 1920.

The Trustees of Sharp St. Station M. E. Church convened on the above date, and opened with prayer by the president Rev. M. F. Mayo. Those present - Rev. M. F. Mayo, Wm. H. Booker, Thos. H. Brooks, Howard E. Young, Allen Brown, Grant E. Biddle.

The president presented two applications for the use of the church. One from the Woman's Dept. of the Masonic Order, and the other from Rev. Love

On motion of Thos. H. Brooks it was decided to let the Women of said order have the use of the church on April 30, 1920. and to Rev. Love on the date he desired provided there was nothing in the way on the date he asked it.

The Report from the Cemetery Office was read and approved, on motion of Thos. H. Brooks.

The Treasurer's Report was read and approved on motion of Wm. H. Booker.

Miss Flossie White, the clerk at the office came to the board, and asked for an increase in her salary, on account of increased duties imposed upon her. She was told that her request would be considered.

After she retired, the board took up the matter and discussed it. resulting in a committee being appointed to ascertain the salaries usually paid for such work at this time. Committee H. E. Young. Wm. H. Booker.

A query from Mr. Hite, through the Treasurer, Howard E. Young, was put to the board concerning the sale of the houses 1134 to 1140 Etting St. After quite a lengthy discussion, it was decided on motion of Wm. H. Booker, to sell the four houses at $2200 each.

Approved
