Mr. Ralph Milburn, the contractor for the sand in the cemetery, was present, and asked that he be allowed to dig deeper than was stipulated in the contract.

After some discussion relative to the appearance it would make, and the manner and cost of grading and filling after he had finished, it was decided by the board to make a new contract; and to raise the price of the sand from $.19 a ton to $.25 a ton

A committee of ladies from the United Standing Asso. headed by their president, Mrs. Maggie Parker, came before the board, and through their president presented some grievancies against the board for having departed from some of its former practices. After the president of the U. S. Asso. had scourged the member of the Trustee Board to her own satisfaction, she then sought to heal their wounds by presenting to the board $25 as a donation from the association

The president of the board of Trustees, responded to the committe, thanking them for their donation, and expressing the reasons for our apparent derilection. The committee was informed that the aid of their Asso. would be greatly needed in the near future, and to hold itself in readiness to respond when called upon.

This seemed to calm the troubled waters, and the committee retered.

On motion of Solomon Tripp, the United Standing Asso. was granted permission to invite the Trustees of the various churches to a sermon some Sunday Night to be chosen by the Asso.

On motion of Dr. Howard E. Young, it was decided to appoint a committee to make up a budget for the Centenary Program. Committee appointed viz. H. E. Young, Grant E. Biddle Wm. H. Booker.

On motion of Solomon Tripp the salary of the clerk at the cemetery office, Miss Flossie White, was increased from $10 per week to $12 per week.
