msa_sc4010_scm3116-0202 ©Maryland State Archives school had been very successfully carried on. Having had an enrollment of nearly 200 pupils.

The income not being sufficient to clear expenses, the board on motion of Thos H. Brooks, decided to appropriate the balance, which was $76.

On motion of Wm A. Booker, it was decided to pay brother Moses James $10.00 more for his services, as watchman at the sand beach. He (James) having previously received $15. Making a total sum of $25 paid him for his services.

On motion of Howard E. Young, an increase of $2 was made in the salary of Albert A. Spriggs, the asst. director. making his salary $8 instead of $6 per mo.

The Treasurer submitted the report of the cost of trip to New York & Boston to study Community Conditions.

The report involved an expense of $92.42, which was ordered paid on motion of Solomon Tripp.

The president made a statement that he had invited the Yorkrite Masons to worship here some time in August. But that they could not make it convenient to come at the time that he invited them, but they chose rather to come on the 3rd Sunday in Sept.

The renovation of the church is expected to be in progress at that time, so the secretary, on motion of Wm. J. Butter, was directed to communicate with the said order, and inform those in authority that on account of the renovation of the church at that time, it would be quite impossible for them to worship here at their desired time.

Adjourned

Rev. W. J. Naylor, Pres.
Grant E. Biddle, Sec.

Baltimore Aug. 7, 1920.

The Trustees of Sharp St. Station M. E. Church met on the above date in special session.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the president.

Those present:- Rev. W. J. Naylor. Wm. H. Booker, Thos. H. Brooks, Grant E. Biddle.

The president stated that he had call the meeting that the trustees might look at the drawings of the proposed community house which were made by Mr. Arthur Segoins, and to talk of the proposed renovation of the church.

Mr. Segoins was present, and explained the drawings to the complete satisfaction to those present.

There were several bids from contractor, who desired to do the work of renovating the church. The board deferred action on the said bids, until we hear from other bidders.

The president read the resignation of the directress of the choir, which she had sent to him, and also a letter asking not to present the resignation to the board, that she had reconsidered her action; but asking that she be allowed a leave of absence until October