msa_sc4010_scm3116-0207 ©Maryland State Archives

A petition from Miss Flossie White, asking for an increase in salary as clerk at the office, was received. After some discussion regarding the matter, it was decided on motion of Wm. J. Butler, that her salary be increased $3 per week, she asked for an increase of $6 per week.

Adjourned.

Rev. M. J. Naylor, Pres.
Grant E. Biddle, Sec.

Baltimore Nov. 29, 1920

The Trustees of Sharp St. M. E. Church and the Building Committee met on the above date. Those pres. Rev. M. J. Naylor, John S. Hardy, Solomon Tripp, Wm. H. Booker, Thos. H. Brooks, Walter Scott, A. M. Segoins, Grant E. Biddle.

Mr. Segoins, the architect for the Community Building, stated to the board, his charges for over-seeing the construction of the building, and other duties that would devolve upon him as architect; which charges would be 3% of the gross cost of the building. On motion of Solomon Tripp it was decided to pay said amount to Mr. Segoins.

The president was authorized to employ Mr. Waters as checker

Mrs. Georgia Fry was charged $10 for the boiler and sink that she got out of one of the houses that was torn down.

The president suggested that a garage be built in the rear of the parsonage with some of the bricks from the houses that have been razed. On motion of John S. Hardy, it was decided to build said garage to hold the car.

Adjourned

Rev. M. J. Naylor, Pres.
Grant E. Biddle, Sec.

Baltimore Dec. 6, 1920.

The Trustees of Sharp St. Station M. E. Church met in regular monthly session on the above date, and opened by singing "My Faith Looks up to Thee" and prayer by the president.

Those present — Rev. M. J. Naylor, Wm. H. Booker, John S. Hardy, Wm. J. Butler, Thos. H. Brooks, Solomon Tripp, Grant E. Biddle.

The minutes of the previous regular and called meetings were read and approved.

The report from the cemetery office was read and on motion approved.

The Treasurer's report was read and on motion approved.

A communication from the United Standing Association, asking the Trustees to donate a turkey for the dinner to the Old Folks at the home, was read, and on motion of John S. Hardy, the board decided to donate a turkey for the said dinner.

Adjourned

Rev. M. J. Naylor, Pres.
Grant E. Biddle, Sec