Baltimore Oct. 31, 1922

The Trustees of Sharp St. Station M.E. Church met in a called meeting on the above date. Opened with prayer by the president.

Those present Rev. C. Y. Trigg, Walter Scott, Wm. J. Butler, Wm. H. Booker, John S. Hardy, Thos. A. Brooks, Solomon Tripp, Grant E. Biddle.

A committee of ladies representing the organizations of the church, called on the board, and through their spokesman, Mrs. Jennie A. Ross, turn over to the trustees $500 as proceeds from the Million-Dollar Wedding. Said proceeds to go towards furnishing the Cafeteria in the Community House. The president in a very fitting speech received the money on the part of the Trustees.

On motion of Solomon Tripp it was decided that Rev. J. C. Johnson should carry out his plans regarding the cafeteria, and select the ladies whom he desired on the committee, and that he should also select two trustees.

On motion of John S. Hardy it was decided to have the president ask that the note at the Commonwealth Bank be extended for 90 days and pay the interest.

On motion of W. J. Butler it was decided to borrow $200 from the money for the Cafeteria.
