five years. Upwards of seventy members of the House, at Washington, have pledged themselves to total abstinence. ——Forrest and Booth are both performing in Philadelphia at the rival theatres, the National and the Walnut.——The temperance societies of Philadelphia have closed the bars in all the theatres in that city, by informing on their keepers, who were selling without licenses. ——The Britannia will leave Boston on Thursday next for Halifax and Liverpool.

A Deputation to Congress.—A deputation from the House of Delegates of the state of *M*aryland, consisting of *M*essrs. Chapman, Levering, Smith, Ligon and *M*cKay, appointed to represent the interest of said state in some contemplated action of Congress in relation to a proposed transfer, of the stock of the United States in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company to the state of *M*aryland, has arrived in Washington city.

Printers.—The *L*owell Courier says: The average age of printers is only 31 years, but they do quite as much good in their lives as some that live longer.—Yeomen live to the age 66, clergymen 55, fishermen 44, mariners 43, gentlemen 58, lawyers 53, physicians 57, laborers 51, butchers 62, traders 60, painters 42, powder makers 25.

The Outrage at Washington.—The Patriot of Tuesday evening contains a publication by A. F. Shriver, Esq. shewing the unsuccessful efforts made by him to obtain from Mr. John B. Weller, of the House of Representatives, satisfaction for the assault committed on him by Mr. Weller on the floor of the house a few days since. It appears that, after having taken advantage of his physical superiority to attack and injure Mr. S., Mr. Weller refuses to meet him on terms of equality. For this dishonorable course Mr. Shriver denounces him as a coward; and the world will ratify the sentence.

Rejection of *M*r. Porter.—Our Washington correspondent states that the Senate, in Executive session on yesterday afternoon, rejected the nomination of James M. Porter as Secretary of War.

Sunday at New Orleans.—It would shock some of our good folks in this quarter to see Sunday celebrated as it sometimes is in New Orleans. We see that recently a grand review of the military by the Governor took place on Sunday, when about 5,000 troops turned out—cavalry, artillery and infantry. In addition to the military volunteers, which evinced such discipline, the races attracted the attention of thousands of strangers. Full bumpers of egg nogg, &c., were served up gratuitously at various hotels in the evening, and three theatres and two masquerade balls were in full operation. This is disgraceful indeed.
