Wilson and Agnes Wilson. She was married to him when she was quite a young girl and had not been previously married nor has she married any man since her separation from my father. As to the cause of their separation I am going to tell you the truth about it and it is this: my father was a cross disagreeable old man and must have been that way when he was young and Agnes could not get along with him is my idea. She has lived in Baltimore since their separation and father lived right here in Calvert county. He had no children by either wife. I knew the last wife Annie only since father was married to her, she was from Baltimore at the time he married her but was born down here somewhere is my understanding. I know that the first wife Agnes has given birth to two children since her separation from father and I know them well and met them in Baltimore but I have no information as to who is their father. The children by my mother Margaret Gross were born while father was living with the wife Annie Moore-Wilson. My father was never married to one Sarah Curtis though I have heard that a woman of that name lived with him at one time but it was before my day. I have ~~heard~~ (erased) no financial interest in this claim and am not related to this claimant. I have heard the foregoing deposition read and it is correct.
