DEPOSITION a

Case of Jesse Fry - Invalid, No. 364,780

On this 9th day of February, 1880, at _____, County of _____ State of _____, before me, _____, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, ~~personally~~ appeared Jesse Fry, who, ~~being~~ by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to h during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says:

to dig intrenchments around Fort McGruder. There were two of us on the scaffold and men below were throwing dirt up to us. I don't know the number of the man who was on the scaffold with me, or those who were below. And one of the men below struck his shovel against the scaffold and as I was standing with one foot near the edge, I slipped but did not fall until I found that the scaffold which had a pile of dirt on it, began to give way. tried to jump into the ditch but fell.- I think the other man saved him self by jumping - In falling I struck on my left side, doubling my arm up under me. I fell about eight or ten feet. - but got up and worked the balance of the afternoon, but my wrist pained me and began swelling. and when the other men quit work. I quit and went to my quarter. - but did not go to the doctor. I don't know whether I went to the doctor for one or two days after the accident - Don't know whether I
