Eisenbrandt Building. Take Elevator.

FIRST SEMI-ANNUAL
AFTERMATH SALE

What is it? "Aftermath," according to Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, means "a second mowing," and the First Semi-Annual AFTERMATH SALE means the second and final clearance of winter stock of TAILORED SUITS, SILK GOWNS, SERGE DRESSES, EVENING WRAPS, COATS, WAISTS, ETC. Inventory has disclosed in each department a number of small lots, which must be disposed of—regardless of value. Prices have been radically "mowed down!" To facilitate quick service to the large numbers who avail themselves of the advantages afforded by these end-of-the-season sales at The Ladies' Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach, the lots have been GROUPED, and the following gives definite idea of the price-reductions:

GROUP 1, AT $10.00
REDUCED FROM $18, $25 AND $35.

150 Tailored Suits—the season's most stunning models in diagonals, whipcords, serges, worsteds and fancy mixtures. Some strictly tailored, some semi-tailored, anticipating the Spring styles, and tastefully finished with unique buttons, odd cut seams and draped effects. A few of all sizes—including the larger sizes up to 44.
