Now that stock-taking is over--clearance!

The chances are you haven't given Spring a thought; but with a store it's different. We must think ahead. When the chirping of the birds tells you Spring has come, and you seek appropriate attire, the stores must be ready for you. That means anticipation. Stocks must be here months ahead that they may be properly displayed. It won't be long before Spring merchandise will begin arriving—and we must make the room for it. So here's for a rousing clearance—and substantial rewards for your help. Several special purchases also add to tomorrow's importance.
